THE PRINCETON SEMINARY CATALOGUE

(USPS 372-490)

VOLUME X, NUMBER 1 (NEW SERIES)

JULY 1986

The catalogue is the basic issue of THE PRINCETON SEMINARY CATALOGUE published each year by Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey. Published in the Fall, Winter, and Spring in the form of specific course schedules and Seminary regulations.

Second class postage paid at Princeton, New Jersey 08542

The annual catalogue is an account of the academic year 1985-1986 and an announcement of the proposed program for the years 1986-1988. The projected program is subject to change and is in no way binding upon the Seminary. Tuition and fees listed herein cover the 1986-1987 academic year only and are subject to change in subsequent years without notice.

Princeton Theological Seminary does not discriminate because of race, color, sex, or age, and complies with the regulation for the handicapped Section 504.

The Seminary offices in the Administration Building are open from 8:30 until 4:30, Monday through Friday, and on Saturday mornings by appointment.

VISITING THE CAMPUS

PROSPECTIVE students are encouraged to visit the Seminary campus at their convenience. Arrangements should be made in advance with the Director of Student Relations or the Director of Admissions. Opportunities will be provided during such visits for personal interviews with members of the Seminary staff, attendance at classes, and informal discussion with Seminary students. Meals and lodging can be provided if a visiting prospective student so desires.

Such visits are not invariably a part of the admissions procedure, but they have proved helpful to both students and admissions personnel in evaluating the student's needs and interests in Seminary education. If a prospective visitor has applied for admission to Princeton Seminary, this should be indicated in correspondence about a proposed visit. Because the spring months of March, April, and May are unusually busy with applications for admission, a prospective student should plan his or her visit for other times of the year, when the chances are better for a relaxed and profitable stay.

MICHAEL E. LIVINGSTON
Director of Admissions

GENERAL INFORMATION

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

THE purpose of Princeton Theological Seminary is to prepare men and women for able and faithful ministry in the Christian church and in present-day society. Committed to a learned ministry for church and society, the Seminary welcomes qualified students without regard to denomination, race, physical handicap, or sex. Through regular chapel worship and other campus functions, the Seminary seeks to strengthen and deepen the spiritual life of students, and through classroom and other academic activities to confront them in critical discussions about the Bible and Christian doctrine with probing questions about faith and life in today's world. The Seminary has one of the outstanding theological libraries in the world, a distinguished and experienced faculty, and a large campus of more than 20 buildings occupying an area of 30 acres in the center of the Princeton community. In the midst of wide diversity, with students of different academic and religious backgrounds, the Seminary encourages a spirit of Christian community on campus so that each individual may be heard, supported, and accepted, and all together be united in a common loyalty to Jesus Christ and his church.

HISTORY

The establishment of The Theological Seminary at Princeton by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in 1812 marked a turning point in American theological education. Within the last quarter of the eighteenth century, all learning was of a piece and could be adequately taught and studied in the schools and colleges, nearly all of which were church-initiated. General education was also the context for professional studies in divinity, medicine, and the law. In the first quarter of the nineteenth century, professional training became disengaged from the college curriculum, medical and law schools were established, and seventeen divinity schools and seminaries came into existence.

On the threshold of the nineteenth century, powerful elements in American life, both secular and religious, were forcing some radical changes in the older, more unitive education and intellectual climate. The emergence of scientific studies, the expansion of the college curriculum, new economic and social responsibilities associated with democratic government, industrial development in the East and geographical movement toward the West—all such factors required the churches to reconsider their own mission and message.

There were also intramural conflicts within the churches. As the denominations multiplied, they become more self-conscious, polemical, and defensive. Local “parsons” found they were not always the undisputed intellectual “persons” in the community. The western migration created a sudden demand for ministers that could not be met under the old training programs, and the rough and ready people on the frontier were less exacting in their requirements for an educated ministry. Religious and theological tides in the meantime were running between deistical, rational influences and pietistic, revivalistic enthusiasm.

The plan to establish a theological seminary at Princeton was in the interests of advancing and extending the theological curriculum. It was not, as has sometimes been intimated, a sectarian withdrawal from secular university life. The educational intention was to go beyond the liberal arts course by setting up a postgraduate, professional school in theology. The plan met with enthusiastic approval on the part of authorities at the College of New Jersey, later to become Princeton University, for they were coming to see that specialized training in theology required more attention than they could give.

With less than a dozen students, Archibald Alexander was the only Seminary professor in 1812. He was joined the following year by a second professor, Samuel Miller, who came to Princeton from the pastorate of the Wall Street Church in New York. Though the faculty of the Seminary was as big (or as small) as at the College, it was a venture of faith bordering on the foolhardy to lay elaborate plans for the future.

To read back over the wording of the original “Design of the Seminary” is to perceive the early growth of the modern development in theological education in America—though the Princeton innovators were not at all thinking of breaking new ground except in the literal sense. They were prophetic enough, however, and among other things the “Design” noted that the purpose of the Seminary was to unite in those who shall sustain the ministerial office, religion and literature; that piety of the heart, which is the fruit only of the renewing and sanctifying grace of God, with solid learning; believing that religion without learning, or learning without religion, in the ministers of the gospel, must ultimately prove injurious to the church.

The dialectic suggested in the juxtaposition of piety and learning deserves some comment. It is an apt text for expounding the peculiar genius of Princeton Seminary and its view of theological education. The piety side of the formula stems from the accent on personal salvation, the experience of repentance and forgiveness, the Christian life of faith, justification, and sanctification, the reality of new selfhood in Jesus Christ, all of which can be traced to the roots of American religion, whether of the Puritan, Calvinist, Lutheran, Quaker, Wesleyan, or “left-wing” Reformation traditions.

So it was that Princeton Seminary, as was true of most other divinity schools, deliberately defined itself as a school of “that piety of the heart,” a training center for church leaders of all sorts, which specialized in preaching, the cure of souls, evangelism, and missions. To be sure, there were many at Princeton unsympathetic with much of the methodology of the new pietism and revivalism. But regarding the religious goals interpreted as personal salvation, “the fruit only of the renewing and sanctifying grace of God,” there was unanimity between thumping revivalists and proper Princetonians.

The other side of the piety-learning formula was equally important for the founders of the Seminary. The new institution was never described as a Protestant monastery or retreat, a place distinguished mainly for prayer and meditation. It was to be a school with teachers and students, library and books, ideas of the mind as well as convictions of the heart, all in the service of “solid learning.” The Reformed tradition, to which Princeton Seminary was and is committed, has always magnified the intellectual integrity of the faith. Theology has been a highly respected word on the campus. Systems and structures of thought, reflection on the meaning and application of the faith, clarity of expression, and precision of definition—these are recognized norms for theological thinking.

The Seminary has been served by a remarkable succession of eminent Presidents. Francis Landey Patton (1902-1913) came to the Seminary after serving as President of Princeton University. J. Ross Stevenson (1914-1936) guided the Seminary through some turbulent years and expanded the institution’s vision and program. John A. Mackay (1936-1959) strengthened the faculty, enlarged the campus, and created a new ecumenical era for theological education. James I. McCord (1959-1983), whose presidency saw the institution of the first center of continuing education at a theological seminary, the establishment of full endowment for twenty-six faculty chairs, and the construction or renovation of major campus residences and academic facilities, has given leadership to both the national and world church through denominational and ecumenical councils.

Thomas W. Gillespie became the Seminary’s fifth president in 1983. A native Californian, he previously served pastorates in Garden Grove and Burlingame, and taught as an adjunct professor at several seminaries in that state. He has served the Presbyterian Church through leadership positions on its boards and agencies and was a delegate to the Consultation on Church Union. He brings to the seminary the experience of a pastor-scholar and a leader in interdenominational dialogue.

Affiliated from the beginning with the Presbyterian Church and the wider Reformed tradition, Princeton Theological Seminary is today a denominational school with an ecumenical, interdenominational, and worldwide constituency. This is reflected in the faculty, in the curriculum of studies, and in the student body.

ALUMNI/AE AND SEMINARIANS

As one of the oldest seminaries in the country, Princeton has graduated more than 17,000 men and women, of whom nearly one-half are still living. One out of every ten graduates in every decade of the Seminary's history has served outside the United States. The Alumni/ae Association is a well-organized and loyal group, proud of the Seminary's history and united in their commitment to Christ and his church.

In recent years, seminarians have come from nearly 400 colleges and universities as well as from 100 other seminaries and from 90 denominations, including nearly all Protestant varieties as well as Roman and Eastern Orthodox Catholic Churches. While the flow of Seminary graduates as missionaries to other countries has been slowed somewhat because of the changed world situation, the traffic continues in the other direction with more than 70 international students from other lands registered at the Seminary in various degree programs.

THE SEMINARY AND THE COMMUNITY

Princeton is an academic, research, and residential community midway between New York and Philadelphia. Already on the map in colonial times, history was made here during the Revolution with George Washington and the Battle of Princeton. Aaron Burr, Jonathan Edwards, and Grover Cleveland lie buried in the Princeton cemetery. Woodrow Wilson graduated from the University to the White House, and Albert Einstein strolled back and forth from his home on Mercer Street, just below the Seminary, to his office at the Institute for Advanced Study.

With the passing of the years, the town has changed. The University still stands at the center of the community, but several other educational institutions, including the Seminary, have put down their roots in this congenial place. Princeton maintains its quiet residential atmosphere with a dozen or more national research laboratories ringing in its outer edges.

Princeton is a small town but rich in educational and cultural resources, with libraries, museums, churches, theaters, concerts, athletic events, and a continuous program of lectures on the arts and sciences open to both town and gown. Princetonians do not complain that there is nothing to do.

CAMPUS

The Seminary campus, enlarged in 1943 by the acquisition of land and buildings in the Stockton Street complex, now covers more than thirty acres. The plant consists of an administration building, three classroom buildings, a library building, a chapel, a campus center building, four dormitories, three apartment houses, a gymnasium and athletic field, and a corporation yard. The Seminary also owns a considerable number of houses which are used as homes by members of the faculty.

With reference to the map on page 2, most of the following buildings easily may be located.

MILLER CHAPEL. The chapel, built in 1834 by Charles Steadman, a local architect and builder of repute, was named for Samuel Miller, the second professor at the Seminary. Originally located beside Alexander Hall, it was moved in 1933 toward the center of the campus. Through its doors have passed vast numbers of students for prayer and praise, for communion and meditation, for reflection and inspiration, for preaching and instruction. The anthems, the hymns, the surging tones of the organ continue to roll daily across the campus when the Seminary is in session.

THE ROBERT E. SPEER LIBRARY. Erected in 1957 and named for the great missionary statesman, Robert E. Speer, a member of the class of 1933, this structure incorporates the contents of the former Lenox Reference and Circulating Libraries in a superb center for research and learning. In addition to a renowned theological collection, the building provides classrooms, study rooms, carrels, a meeting room for the Faculty and Board of Trustees, a reading room, and lounges. A description of the resources and book collections will be found on page 124.

STUART HALL. The architect of Stuart Hall could have had in mind the hymn "A Mighty Fortress" when he designed the massive and imposing walls and turrets. Constructed in 1876, a gift of Robert L. and Alexander Stuart of New York City, its lecture rooms have been the forum for the sharing of knowledge and wisdom between professor and student. Thoroughly renovated in the summer of 1986, Stuart Hall contains seventeen class and seminar rooms equipped to serve a wide range of teaching-learning formats.

The Robert E. Speer Library

ALEXANDER HALL. Originally called the “Old Seminary” and later re-named for Archibald Alexander, the first professor, who taught and worked within its walls until 1851, the building initially housed students, the library, the chapel, classrooms, and a refectory. Constructed in 1815 and still architecturally the heart of the campus, it was extensively renovated in the summer of 1978 and is now a dormitory consisting largely of single rooms. The bell in the cupola summons the campus community to classes, to worship, to meals, and to meetings.

BROWN HALL. The gift of Mrs. George Brown of Baltimore, this structure was opened in 1865 as a men’s dormitory. A host of students have lived here, coming from urban and rural areas, East and West coasts, and six continents. The building was thoroughly renovated in the summer of 1979 to provide single-room accommodations for about 80 men and women students.

HODGE HALL. Completed in 1893, this building was named for the Seminary’s distinguished third professor, Charles Hodge. The L-shaped plan permits each room to receive sunlight during some part of each day. Originally a dormitory for men, it was later renovated to house women and married couples as well. The first floor contains administrative offices, and in the basement are printing facilities and the mailroom. The upper three floors were remodeled in the summer of 1980, providing facilities for about 70 students in single rooms and three-room suites.

TENNENT HALL. One of several buildings purchased in 1943 to provide a much needed center for the School of Christian Education, Tennent Hall is named for William Tennent, who in 1726 founded the Log College, forerunner of Princeton University. In addition, there is here perpetuated the name of the Tennent College of Christian Education of Philadelphia, which assigned its assets in trust to the Seminary for the conduct of instruction in the field of Christian education on the graduate level. The first dormitory for women on the Seminary campus, Tennent Hall was thoroughly renovated in the summer of 1982 to house the Christian Education offices, several faculty studies, and two floors of apartments for married students.

ROBERTS HALL. This complex of three wings, acquired in 1943 and totally renovated in the summer of 1983, contains apartments of varying size to accommodate married students who prefer to live within walking distance of the main campus of the Seminary. Facilities for the International Students’ Association and the Women’s Center are located on the lower level. The building has been rededicated in honor of Edward Howell Roberts, Dean and Professor of Preaching, who was an inspiration to ministerial candidates for over two decades.

PAYNE HALL. This hall for the housing of missionaries on furlough was given in 1922 by Mr. and Mrs. Calvin N. Payne of Titusville, Pennsylvania.

nia. It contains fully furnished apartments for twelve families. In assigning apartments, preference is given to missionaries and fraternal workers who propose taking a regular course of study in the Seminary.

THE WHITELEY GYMNASIUM. The gymnasium, purchased as a part of the Stockton Street complex, is named for Mrs. George H. Whiteley of York, Pennsylvania, who bequeathed a sum of money for a gymnasium originally designed to be part of a student center building. Facilities include courts for basketball, squash, handball, and racquetball. The Princeton chapter of Recording for the Blind, Inc., is housed on the lower level.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING. This building, located in the center of the campus, was originally constructed as a refectory. Converted into a gymnasium in 1910, an addition in 1981 enabled the Seminary to bring under one roof most of the administrative offices.

JOHN ALEXANDER MACKAY CAMPUS CENTER. Completed in 1952, the Campus Center provides a place for many Seminary activities. Facilities which had been scattered in a number of eating clubs were replaced by one dining center. The building contains two dining rooms and a kitchen, a large auditorium with stage, lounges, meeting rooms, faculty offices, the book agency, and the office of admissions. Dedicated to the memory and witness of John Alexander Mackay, the third President of the Seminary, the building envisions "the creation on this campus of a Christian community whose members, drawn from diverse lands and churches, shall serve in all the world the one church which is Christ's body."

CHARLOTTE RACHEL WILSON APARTMENTS. On U.S. Route 1, about two miles south of the campus as the crow flies, stand the Charlotte Rachel Wilson Apartments, named in memory of the mother of a beloved friend of the Seminary, Mrs. Charlotte T. Newcombe. Her generous legacy lifted the mortgage from this very useful property which includes 25 two-story buildings, each containing eight apartments, some with one bedroom and others with two. They are available to married students with or without children. An attended outdoor pool and other recreational facilities are on the grounds.

CHARLOTTE NEWCOMBE CENTER. Completed in the summer of 1982, the Charlotte Newcombe Center is located on the grounds of the Seminary's apartment complex. The building contains a large study section, with carrels for individual work, and an enclosed typing area. Other facilities include an informal lounge, a multi-purpose social room, and a small service kitchen.

CARRIAGE HOUSE. This building, situated a few hundred feet from Speer Library, was purchased by the Seminary in 1965. It contains two seminar rooms and several faculty offices.

ERDMAN HALL. In loving memory of Dr. and Mrs. Charles R. Erdman, alumni/ae and friends raised more than a million dollars to erect a dormitory, dedicated in 1971, on the site of their home, thus remembering their gracious hospitality. Dr. Erdman was a member of the class of 1891 and a member of the faculty from 1905 to 1936. One section of the building is a dormitory for men and women; the other section provides residential quarters for the Center of Continuing Education.

ADAMS HOUSE. Located across Library Place from Speer Library, the building that was once a private residence and now houses the Center of Continuing Education has been named in memory of Dean Arthur M. Adams. Dean Adams was instrumental in the founding of the Center and supervised its program. Over 5,000 persons, both clergy and lay, participate here annually.

31 LIBRARY PLACE. This stately residential structure on the corner of Stockton Street and Library Place first served as a faculty home and later as an accommodation for unmarried students. Since the spring of 1986 it has housed the offices and technical facilities of the department of speech.

PROGRAMS OF STUDY

APPLICATION

A student desiring to enter the Seminary must file a formal application, a copy of which will be sent upon request. A non-refundable fee of $25.00 is required both of new applicants and of alumni seeking admission to advanced programs. Princeton Seminary admits qualified men and women students of any race, color, and national or ethnic origin, irrespective of physical handicap.

THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF DIVINITY

The program of study set forth for the Master of Divinity degree is designed to prepare students for the parish ministry, for graduate study in theology and related disciplines, for various types of chaplaincy, for mission work at home and abroad, and for other forms of church vocation. The curriculum is planned to provide the maximum of flexibility and independence consonant with a broad theological foundation.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

It is recommended that the candidate's baccalaureate preparation include at least sixty semester hours, or twenty semester courses, in such liberal arts studies as English, philosophy, literature, history, and ancient and modern languages, together with some work in the natural and human sciences, especially psychology and sociology.

Among items specified on the application form, an applicant for the M.Div. program must furnish a letter of evaluation and endorsement from the minister or governing body of the church with which he or she is affiliated, together with three additional letters of reference from persons in a position to assess his or her qualifications for seminary study. It is expected that applicants shall be certified as ministerial candidates by the responsible governing body of their denomination, or are making normal progress toward such certification. In addition, the candidate must supply a transcript of all college or university work pursued to date. When possible, this is to be supplemented by the Confidential Report of Academic Standing. If an applicant has not yet completed the baccalaureate program and is accepted for admission to the Seminary, a supplementary transcript must be provided indicating the awarding of a baccalaureate degree by an approved college or university. Matriculation in the Seminary cannot be effected until this supplementary record has been received.

Whenever feasible, an interview with a member of the Seminary staff is recommended. Such an interview can be arranged through the office of the Director of Admissions.

It is expected that applications for the M.Div. program be filed with the Director of Admissions by March 1 for the following academic year. Applications submitted after March 1 will be considered only if space is available.

Applications which are completed by December 1 will be reviewed promptly by the Admissions Committee and such applicants may receive notice of admission in December. Priority in the assignment of housing will be given on the basis of early application and admission. Admissions are also made in February and March and, if space is available, at regular intervals thereafter.

COMPONENTS OF THE PROGRAM

The components of the Master of Divinity program are three in number:

1. Seventy-eight units (credit hours) of academic work distributed over six semesters of full-time resident study. Certain of the units are assigned to specific requirements and the remainder may be drawn from available electives or special courses. Where a candidate is permitted to apply credits earned in another seminary toward the Princeton M.Div. requirements, the equivalent of two full years of study (fifty-two units), including in all cases the final year, must be spent at Princeton Seminary.

2. A program of Senior studies in some area of the curriculum. This program, pursued under the direction of a faculty adviser, shall embrace at least nine units beyond the general distribution requirement and may, at the option of qualified students, involve the preparation of a thesis.

3. The completion of an approved program of field education, the nature of which is elaborated on page 121 of this catalogue.

PROGRAM SEQUENCE

Instruction in the Seminary is broadly organized under four academic departments, and portions of the curricular requirements are assigned to each of these departments.

BIBLICAL STUDIES

The student is required to take eighteen units in this department, distributing the work as follows:

(a) Courses OT01, Orientation to Old Testament Studies, and NT01, Orientation to New Testament Studies, which must be completed during the first year of work.

(b) Twelve additional units, not all in the same Testament, drawn from courses numbered OT11 or NT11 and above. If, however, a student successfully completes course OT04 or NT04, he or she will receive an allowance of three units toward the distribution requirement for each such course completed, provided another course also be taken in the Testament concerned.

Students entering as candidates for the Master of Divinity degree who have studied Greek may take a placement examination in Greek to demonstrate their ability to carry on exegetical work in New Testament. This examination will seek to determine (a) the candidate's ability to decline nouns, adjectives, and participles and to conjugate and parse (analyze) verbs; (b) his or her acquaintance with fundamental syntactical constructions (such as those dealt with in J. G. Machen's New Testament Greek for Beginners, Macmillan Company); and (c) his or her proficiency in translating simple Greek prose. At the examination the student will have a choice between a passage from Xenophon's Anabasis, Book I, and one from the Gospel of Mark. A placement examination also is made available in Hebrew for students with prior instruction in this language.

HISTORY

The student is required to take twelve units in this department, distributing the work as follows:

- (a) In the division of Church History, both CH01, History of Christianity I, and CH02, History of Christianity II.*
- (b) Six additional units, including some work in History of Religions, Church and Society, or Ecumenics.*

THEOLOGY

The student is required to take twelve units in this department, distributing the courses as follows:

- (a) Course TH01, Introduction to Theology, which must be completed by the middle of the second year of study.*
- (b) A course dealing with a major theologian or basic Christian doctrine, selected from a group designated as qualifying as a second course in theology.*
- (c) A course in Philosophy or Christian Ethics.*
- (d) A course drawn from any of the departmental divisions.*

PRACTICAL THEOLOGY

The student is required to include in his or her program fifteen units drawn from the offerings available in this department.

(a) Six units shall be drawn from a group of one-unit offerings designated as practicums in the individual titles or course descriptions. In all instances this shall include SP01, Fundamentals of Expression; except with the approval of the Director of Professional Studies, it shall include SP02, Fundamentals of Expression, and PR02, Preaching Practicum, as well. A maximum of two units of polity may be applied toward the practicum requirement. One unit of polity is required for all candidates who are members of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

(b) Nine additional units, including three-unit courses in at least two divisions of the department. Except with the approval of the Director of Professional Studies, course PR01 shall be included in the program of every student and must be completed during the middle year.

PART-TIME STUDY AND ACCELERATION

The program of study leading to the M.Div. degree is designed to be completed in six semesters of full-time study, exclusive of any period that may be devoted to an internship.

In a few instances, usually occasioned by ill-health or extraordinary family circumstances, a portion of the work may be conducted on a part-time basis, and the time required to finish the degree is extended beyond three years. An M.Div. candidate should not expect, however, to pursue any substantial portion of the curriculum by part-time study. The foundational courses, and many others that are essential for a balanced and integrated program, meet through the week, and appropriate substitutes are ordinarily unavailable. The Seminary provides no assurance that a student who is able to attend class only on particular days, or for a restricted number of periods each day, will have access to the courses he or she needs to complete the graduation requirements.

In addition to the regular academic semesters, the Seminary provides a summer session that is available to M.Div. candidates under certain defined conditions. Such candidates may draw upon the offerings of the summer session for the following reasons: (a) To pursue the intensive courses in Greek and Hebrew language and exegesis, thus laying a strong foundation for work in all of the theological disciplines. (b) To rectify deficiencies from the preceding year or to lighten their projected load for the year ahead. (c) To enrich their theological awareness beyond the minimum requirements for graduation. Summer courses must be selected with particular care, since several of these offerings may be applied toward the graduation requirements in a restricted way, and others carry no credit at all toward those requirements.

As a general rule, credits earned during the summer session and extra credits earned during regular terms may not be used to reduce the six semesters of resident study prescribed for the degree. Exceptions to this rule are granted only under extraordinary circumstances, and on the basis of a written petition to the Committee on Professional Studies.

A candidate contemplating part-time study should be aware of the limitations that such status imposes on eligibility for financial aid, student housing, and loan deferment. The Seminary cannot certify to the Immigration and Naturalization Service an international student who is pursuing his or her work on a part-time basis.

ACCELERATED PROGRAM IN MINISTRY AND SOCIAL WORK

A limited number of students can be accepted each year for an accelerated program leading to the Master of Divinity degree from the Seminary and the Master of Social Work degree from Rutgers University. This program is designed for students who expect to enter forms of ministry requiring competence both in the disciplines of theology and in those associated with social work.

The M.Div. requirements are completed as usual in the first three years. During the third year up to six units (credit hours) taken at Rutgers University may be credited toward the Seminary degree. Immediately following the granting of the M.Div. degree, the student enters the summer session at the Graduate School of Social Work with advanced standing and may complete all requirements for the M.S.W. by June of the fourth academic year.

Applications for this program should be filed with the Director of Professional Studies by May 1 of the second year of the theological course. A special bulletin covering the requirements of this program is available upon request.

THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTS IN CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The program of study leading to the degree of Master of Arts in Christian education is designed as preparation for service in various professional capacities, particularly that of director of Christian education or religious education coordinator in the parish. This curriculum is approved by the Roman Catholic Diocese of Trenton for the professional training of religious educators.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

It is recommended that the candidate's baccalaureate preparation include at least sixty semester hours, or twenty semester courses, in such liberal arts studies as English, philosophy, literature, history, and ancient and modern languages, together with some work in the natural and human sciences, especially psychology and sociology.

Among items specified on the application form, an applicant for the M.A. program must furnish a letter of evaluation and endorsement from the minister or governing body of the church with which he or she is affiliated, together with three additional letters of reference from persons in a position to assess his or her qualifications for seminary study. In addition, the candidate must supply a transcript of all college or university work pursued to date. When possible, this is to be supplemented by the Confidential Report of Academic Standing. If an applicant has not yet completed the baccalaureate program and is accepted for admission to the Seminary, a supplementary transcript must be provided indicating the awarding of a baccalaureate degree by an approved college or university. Matriculation in the Seminary cannot be effected until this supplementary record has been received.

Whenever feasible, an interview with a member of the Seminary staff is recommended. Such an interview can be arranged through the office of the Director of Admissions.

It is expected that applications for the M.A. program be filed with the Director of Admissions by March 1 for the following academic year. Applications submitted after March 1 will be considered only if space is available.

Applications which are completed by December 1 will be reviewed promptly by the Admissions Committee and such applicants may receive notice of admission in December. Priority in the assignment of housing will be given on the basis of early application and admission. Admissions are also made in February and March and, if space is available, at regular intervals thereafter.

COMPONENTS OF THE PROGRAM

The components of the Master of Arts program in Christian education are three in number:

1. Fifty-two units (credit hours) distributed over four semesters of study. Certain of the units are assigned to specific requirements, and the remainder may be drawn from available electives or special courses. Where the candidate is permitted to apply credits earned elsewhere toward the Princeton M.A. requirements, the final year of study (twenty-six units) must in all cases be spent at Princeton Seminary.

2. A professional examination over the basic material in Christian education and in the other areas of the Seminary program. The preparation for this examination should be done partly through formal courses and partly through independent reading. At the beginning of the first year the student will receive a syllabus for the examination, indicating the essential areas to be covered and the bibliography to be employed. The professional examination will be given at the end of the first semester of the final year of study.

3. The completion of an approved program of field education, the nature of which is elaborated on page 123 of this catalogue.

PROGRAM SEQUENCE

Instruction in the Seminary is broadly organized under four academic departments, and portions of the curricular requirements are assigned to each of these departments.

BIBLICAL STUDIES

Two specific courses in this department are normally required of all students and should be taken during the first year in the program:

OT01, Orientation to Old Testament Studies

NT01, Orientation to New Testament Studies

HISTORY

The student is required to elect six units in this department, three of which shall be in the division of Church History and three in another of the divisions. The work in Church History shall be either CH01, History of Christianity I, or CH02, History of Christianity II.

THEOLOGY

The student is required to elect six units in this department, three of which shall be in the division of Doctrinal Theology and three in another of the divisions. The work in Doctrinal Theology shall be TH01, Introduction to Theology.

PRACTICAL THEOLOGY

The student is required to include in his or her program twenty-two units from the offerings of this department.

(a) Four units shall be drawn from a group of one-unit offerings designated as practicums in the individual titles or course descriptions. In all instances this shall include SP01, Fundamentals of Expression. A maximum of two units of polity may be applied toward the practicum requirement. One unit of polity is required for all candidates who are members of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

(b) Course ED01, Introduction to Christian Education.

(c) One course from the following group: ED11, Philosophy of Education; ED13, History of Education; ED15, Educational Psychology; ED16, Developmental Psychology; ED45, Socio-cultural Foundations of Education.

(d) One course from the following group: ED30, Curriculum and Method in Christian Education; ED31, Administration of Christian Education; ED34, The Activities of Teaching.

(e) One course from the following group: ED41, The Christian Education of Adults; ED42, The Christian Education of Youth; ED43, The Christian Education of Children; ED44, Educational Ministry and the Family.

(f) Six units drawn from some division or divisions of the department other than Christian Education.

POST-M.DIV. PROGRAM

Candidates who hold the M.Div. degree ordinarily can complete the M.A. in Christian education requirements in one additional year of full-time study. In each case the specific program components will be determined in terms of the student's previous education and experience.

THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTS IN THEOLOGICAL STUDIES

The program leading to the degree of Master of Arts in theological studies is designed to provide graduate education for persons currently engaged professionally in the teaching ministry of the church or for persons who have an attested expectation of such engagement. In no way a step to or substitute for the doctorate, it is available to a limited number of candidates for whom such a two-year course is the normal qualification for appointment or advancement as a professional theological educator. [Applications are not currently being accepted for this program.]

THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF THEOLOGY

The program of studies for the degree of Master of Theology is designed for students who wish to improve or deepen their preparation for the ministry beyond the level reached by their M.Div. course, or who desire to acquire a preparation for specialized ministries of the church.

Special arrangements also have been made with the Roman Catholic Diocese of Trenton to meet the needs of personnel related to this jurisdiction.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applications for the degree of Master of Theology (Th.M.), together with the necessary supporting documents, must be filed with the Director of Admissions by May 1 for the following academic year. Applications submitted after May 1 will be considered if space is available. The Admissions Committee holds meetings periodically throughout the year to consider those applications for which the files of credentials are complete. Each applicant will be notified of the committee's action as soon as practicable after a decision has been reached. Those who seek admission to this program will find it to their advantage to make application at an early date, since the number of positions available in some fields is necessarily limited.

An applicant for the Th.M. degree is required to furnish, among other items specified on the application form, a letter from the appropriate official of the applicant's endorsing governing body, stating that he or she is in good and regular standing with the denomination, together with three additional letters of reference from persons in a position to assess his or her qualifications for graduate theological study. In addition, the applicant must submit a transcript of all college and seminary work pursued to date. If accepted, evidence must be provided to show that the applicant has been awarded the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Divinity, or their equivalents, from approved institutions. The equivalent of the M.Div. degree is completion of a three-year post-baccalaureate program designed as preparation for ordained ministry. Matriculation in the Seminary cannot be effected until this record has been received.

Applicants wishing to receive the Th.M. degree in the Department of Biblical Studies must have a knowledge of Greek and Hebrew.

Applicants who receive notice of admission prior to February 15 must indicate to the Director by March 15 whether or not they will accept admission to the Seminary. Applicants receiving notification after February 15 must indicate their decision within thirty days.

PROGRAM

Twenty-four units (credit hours) are required for the Th.M. degree. If the candidate wishes to present a thesis in partial fulfillment of the requirement, it shall be assigned six units of academic credit. Courses ordinarily must be taken in the area of the department in which the candidate is specializing. However, the student may be permitted to take courses in other areas of the department, or in areas of other departments, if in the judgment of his or her faculty adviser these courses are related to the student's field of concentration.

The candidate who seeks the degree without the presentation of a thesis must pursue one or two courses which will require the writing of an essay or essays, which give evidence of ability to engage in research and present his or her investigation in an acceptable literary and academic form.

Each candidate will be assigned an adviser by the Office of Professional Studies. Candidates will arrange their programs of study in consultation with their advisers, and in accordance with the programs developed for their chosen areas of study. As a rule, introductory level courses may not be chosen for credit toward the Th.M. degree. In special cases, the student's adviser may give permission for selecting such courses, provided the instructor will give special assignments in accordance with the requirements for the Th.M. degree.

When a thesis is presented in partial fulfillment of degree requirements, it must be submitted to the professor concerned by May 1. It must have special merit, be approved by the adviser-professor, and be acceptable to the Director of Professional Studies.

The candidate must spend a minimum of one year in residence and should, within that period, normally complete both his or her courses and the thesis (where applicable). The schedule of courses in several program areas is so arranged, however, that candidates may attend class one day each week for four semesters in succession, and receive the degree in two years. Class days may vary from semester to semester. If an extension of time is desired, the candidate must make petition to the Director of Professional Studies. Extensions ordinarily are granted for one or two semesters at a time.

Candidates must attain an average of 2.70 (B minus) or better in order to qualify for the Th.M. degree.

THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

The program of studies for the degree of Doctor of Ministry is designed for men and women who wish to pursue, at an advanced level, education for ministerial practice. It is oriented not to teaching and research, although aspects of these activities are essential to any form of effective ministry, but to the integration of theological and behavioral understandings in the context of continuing responsible engagement in service. Accordingly, the candidate is expected to be engaged in a recognized form of full-time ministerial practice for the duration of the program.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applications for the degree of Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.), together with the necessary supporting documents, should be filed with the Director of D.Min. Studies not later than March 15 for the following academic year and the summer thereafter. Applicants are informed of the decision of the Admissions Committee on or about the first of May.

An applicant for the D.Min. degree is required to furnish, among other items specified on the application form, the following credentials:

a. After admission and before matriculation an endorsement from his or her session, governing board, or supervisor, approving the expenditure of time called for by the program.

b. An official transcript of all college and seminary work pursued to date. Included must be indications that the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and

Master of Divinity, or their equivalents, were received from approved institutions.

c. Three letters of reference in which assessment is made of his or her ministerial practice.

d. An extended personal statement dealing with aspects of his or her ministerial practice and including a tentative sketch of a feasible thesis project.

The program normally is limited to persons who have been engaged in the regular practice of ministry for a period of at least three to five years. Applicants who receive notice of admission to the program must indicate to the Director within thirty days whether or not they intend to accept that admission.

PROGRAM

The phases of the curriculum leading to the Doctor of Ministry degree are four in number:

1. Satisfactory completion of two terms of workshop experience. The candidate participates with a dozen ministerial colleagues and members of the faculty. Here concrete situations arising in ministry, together with the candidate's own patterns of practice, are critically assessed. For persons within commuting distance, workshops sometimes are scheduled to meet one day each week throughout two autumn semesters; for those beyond commuting distance, and usually for those within commuting distance as well, concentrated terms are scheduled for two three-week summer periods.

2. Individualized preparation for the qualifying examination. No specific courses are required of candidates generally, beyond the two terms of workshop. Each candidate prepares a self-evaluation in the light of workshop critiques, and at the conclusion of the first workshop outlines an individual program of preparation for the qualifying examination. This program may include summer school courses, conferences, laboratories, clinical pastoral education units, or other forms of education at Princeton or elsewhere.

3. Satisfactory completion of the qualifying examination. Candidates must pass an examination in which they analyze case situations of ministry from the four perspectives used throughout the D.Min. program: (a) caring and restorative aspects of ministry, (b) communicative and educative aspects of ministry, (c) administrative and organizational aspects of ministry, and (d) theological and ethical aspects of ministry. The examination is taken between the first and second workshops for both diagnostic and credit purposes, and portions not passed are retaken at scheduled examination periods following the second workshop.

4. A thesis project in some area associated with the practice of ministry. This project, written under the supervision of members of the faculty, may take a form appropriate to the subject matter involved.

Failure to pay tuition or continuation fees by the end of the second semester of an academic year, without written approval of the Business Manager, will terminate the candidacy.

THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

The Doctor of Philosophy program is designed to prepare men and women for independent scholarship in various dimensions of the study of religion and for teaching in colleges and theological seminaries. Work currently is offered in five areas:

1. Biblical Studies [Old Testament, New Testament]
2. History and Ecumenics [Church History; History of Doctrine; Ecumenics, Missiology, and History of Religions]
3. Theology [History of Christian Doctrine, Systematic Theology, Philosophy and Theology, Christian Ethics]
4. Religion and Society [Sociology of Religion, Social Ethics]
5. Practical Theology [Christian Education, Pastoral Theology, Theology and Communication in Preaching]

Upon petition, interdisciplinary programs are also sometimes approved and are pursued under the direct supervision of the Committee on Ph.D. Studies.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applications for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.), together with the necessary supporting documents, must be filed with the Director of Ph.D. Studies. Applications and supporting materials must be in Princeton by January 9, 1987. Applicants will be informed of the decision of the Committee on or about the first of March.

An applicant for the Ph.D. degree is required to furnish, among other items specified on the application form, the following credentials:

a. Transcripts of all college and seminary work pursued to date. Evidence must be provided to show that the applicant has been awarded the degree of Bachelor of Arts or its equivalent from an approved college or university, and the degree of Master of Divinity or its equivalent from an approved theological institution.

The M.Div. degree is required of candidates in Practical Theology. In other fields of study, if the M.Div. or its equivalent be absent, a minimum of two years of graduate study in religion is required. Included in the two years must be a course in each of Old Testament; New Testament; systematic theology, philosophy, or ethics; history of religions; a human science in relation to religion; and two courses in the history of Christianity.

b. The results of the General Test of the Graduate Record Examination and, for some fields, an appropriate Advanced Test. This examination is given at numerous centers throughout the world by the Educational Testing Service. Applications to take the examination should be sent to The Graduate Record Examinations, Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey 08541, or (for far western states) Box 27896, Los Angeles, California 90027. For applicants whose native language is not English, the Test of English as a Foreign Language, also administered by Educational Testing Service, is to be substituted. The Educational Testing Service will transmit the examination results directly to Princeton Seminary.

Candidates in Religion and Society may be required to take the Advanced Test in Sociology, not as a basis of admission but for the purpose of placement and guidance.

Candidates in the Practical areas are required to submit evidence of professional practice under close supervision, or else must arrange to engage in such practice during their period of residence.

c. An academic paper in his or her intended area of specialization. This paper, either previously or specially prepared, should, in the mind of the applicant, be representative of his or her best work. It should ordinarily be between twenty and forty pages in length. The paper will be evaluated by the following standards as evidence of the candidate's ability to work on the doctoral level in the intended area of specialization: (1) understanding of the subject treated and the materials used, (2) knowledge of relevant bibliography, (3) cogency and clarity of argument, and (4) constructive originality of thought.

Applicants who receive notice that their applications have been approved must indicate to the Director within thirty days whether or not they intend to accept admission to the Seminary.

THE SEQUENCE OF A TYPICAL PROGRAM

The program of any particular doctoral candidate may deviate from the following outline at some points, but this sketch indicates in general what may be anticipated. More complete information concerning the Ph.D. program may be obtained by addressing the Director of Ph.D. Studies.

1. It is necessary for the entering doctoral candidate to demonstrate a working knowledge of at least one of the required modern languages prior to matriculation. A translation test must be passed at the latest in September, or the candidate must have successfully completed the summer course for doctoral candidates in French or in German at Princeton University. Candidates who do not pass the translation test, or who do not successfully complete the University language course, are not permitted to register for any courses except modern languages and are not eligible for financial aid. If the language test is not passed before the beginning of the second semester, candidacy in the program will be terminated. In similar fashion, the second language examination should be passed as early as possible, and at the latest in September prior to the opening of the second year of residence as a condition of registration.

2. Orientation for incoming doctoral students is held immediately before the opening of the fall term in September. Questions of registration and advisement are handled at this time. The student is assigned a primary adviser and, usually, two other members of his or her residence committee. It is from this residence committee and especially its chairperson that the student secures counsel with regard to courses and other aspects of his or her program until the time of the comprehensive examinations.

3. A two-year period of full-time resident study prior to the completion of the comprehensive examination is normally required. In no case is advanced standing granted at the time of acceptance for candidacy. In exceptional cases the Committee on Ph.D. Studies may later reduce the time of resident preparation for the comprehensive examinations on recommendation of the candidate's department. Under no condition will the minimum requirement of two years' full-time tuition be reduced.

4. In the second term of the first year of residence the student's work is reviewed by his or her residence committee and further courses of study are planned, leading to the comprehensive examinations, if satisfactory progress has been made.

5. The period of resident study culminates in the comprehensive examinations which are usually four or five in number, designed for five hours of writing each, followed by an oral of approximately two hours. With the permission of the candidate's residence committee and department, an essay may be presented in lieu of one of the examination papers. Other variations in testing procedure must be approved by the Committee on Ph.D. Studies. With specific exceptions approved by departments and the Committee on Ph.D. Studies, all examinations should be taken at one period, of which there are three each year: September and early October, January, and May. Students may take the comprehensive examinations in May of the second year of residence. The latest date by which they may be completed without special permission from the Committee on Ph.D. Studies is May of the year following the completion of residence. With permission of the candidate's residence committee and department, the examinations may be divided between no more than two of the dates within this period. Under no circumstances may examinations be undertaken until all language requirements have been satisfied, or completed before a dissertation proposal has been approved by the Committee on Ph.D. Studies.

6. The student is urged to give thought to possible areas and topics for the dissertation from the very beginning of residency. Seminar and course papers might well be chosen in part to explore such possibilities. A dissertation proposal should be worked out with the committee during the first semester of the second year of residence. In a form satisfactory to that residence committee, it must be submitted to the Committee on Ph.D. Studies at least two term-time months before the date of the comprehensive examinations or, where they are divided, the final written portions thereof. With the proposal in view, the Committee on Ph.D. Studies will consider the candidate's own suggestions and appoint a dissertation committee upon nomination by the department concerned. The chairperson of the dissertation committee must be a full-time member of the Seminary faculty.

7. Upon satisfactory completion of the comprehensive examinations, the student prepares a dissertation, following procedures of counsel and evaluation agreed upon with the members of his or her dissertation committee. The dissertation must be accepted by the committee no later than March 15 of the year in which the degree is to be conferred.

8. A final public oral examination on the dissertation is required. The date is set by the dissertation committee, in consultation with the candidate and with the approval of the Director of Ph.D. Studies, after the dissertation has been accepted for examination. Upon satisfactory completion of this examination the candidate is recommended for the degree by the examiners.

9. At least one business day prior to the last regular faculty meeting of the second semester, two copies of the dissertation, one bound and one unbound, must be deposited in the Office of Ph.D. Studies. Each copy must include an abstract of not more than 350 words. The dissertation is made available to the scholarly world by microfilm, for which the candidate completes the Microfilm Publication Agreement Form in the Office of Ph.D. Studies. The abstract is published in Dissertation Abstracts.

Upon the completion of full-time resident study, candidacy is maintained by the payment of an annual continuation fee of $300. This fee is designed to cover the cost of institutional services ordinarily rendered to a student actively engaged in the writing of a dissertation. It does not envision, however, the pursuit of additional courses for academic credit. All degree requirements normally must be completed within six years of the beginning of candidacy. In unusual circumstances the Committee on Ph.D.

Studies may authorize a relaxation of this rule, but in such cases the continuation fee is increased to $600 per year. If all degree requirements are not completed within nine years, the candidacy will automatically expire. Failure to pay tuition or continuation fees for an academic year without written approval of the Business Manager will terminate the candidacy.

ADDITIONAL PROGRAMS AND REQUIREMENTS

NATIONAL CAPITAL SEMESTER

The National Capital Semester for Seminarians offers an opportunity for a limited number of students in their fourth or fifth terms of residence to spend a semester in Washington, D.C., for the study of public policy from a theological perspective and for encounter with persons involved in the political process. The program entails supervised study, direct political interaction, and ethical reflection, and offers a full semester (twelve or thirteen units) of academic credit. Participants retain their enrollment in Princeton Seminary during the National Capital term, pay tuition to this institution, and are eligible for financial assistance. Application for the program should be made to the Director of Professional Studies by December 1 for the spring semester and by April 1 for the autumn semester.

PROGRAM FOR ASIAN-AMERICAN THEOLOGY AND MINISTRY

The Program for Asian-American Theology and Ministry has been established by Princeton Theological Seminary to facilitate the theological education of leaders for the rapidly-growing Asian immigrant churches in the United States. The work of the Program finds focus in the recruitment, education, and placement of bilingual and bicultural second-generation Asian-American M.Div. students; the continuing education of first-generation Asian immigrant clergy and laity; and the development of theological, educational, and bibliographic resources for an effective ministry in Asian immigrant contexts.

Beyond its service to the Asian-American church, the Program seeks to promote mutual understanding and solidarity among persons of all ethnic and racial backgrounds, both within the Seminary and in the wider Christian community. Further information about the Program and its activities may be secured by addressing the Director of the Program for Asian-American Theology and Ministry, Princeton Theological Seminary, CN821, Princeton, New Jersey 08542.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

The Seminary admits a limited number of qualified applicants who desire to pursue studies in the Seminary on a matriculated basis but who do not wish to enroll as candidates for a degree. Special students usually are admitted for only one year of study and pursue a carefully selected group of courses under a faculty adviser. They pay tuition either by the semester or by unit of credit. Inquiries should be directed to the Director of Admissions.

AUDITORS

Regularly enrolled students and guests of the Seminary may audit classes provided they have secured the consent of the professors involved and have enrolled with the Registrar. No record will be maintained of any classes attended on this basis. Qualified persons who are not students of the Seminary may audit classes provided they have secured the permission of the professors involved, have enrolled with the Registrar, and (unless they are husbands or wives of regular students, or certified pastors in the Teaching Church Program) have paid the required fee for each course audited. Applicants should correspond with the Registrar. No auditors will be received after the first day of the term. Courses begun on an audit basis may not subsequently be changed to credit status.

UNCLASSIFIED STUDENTS

As a courtesy to other recognized schools of theology, students from those institutions may occasionally be admitted for a semester or a year of full-time or part-time work. The grades for such persons are transmitted to the sending schools, and Princeton Seminary provides no further transcript service. Unclassified students received in this way are not regarded to be alumni/ae of the Seminary.

A similar courtesy is extended to graduates of the Seminary who reside in the area and who wish to pursue an occasional course without becoming candidates for an advanced degree. Such work is appended to the graduate's seminary record.

Persons who wish to inquire about unclassified status should correspond with the Registrar. Unclassified students are charged regular fees but are not eligible for financial assistance, and normally cannot be considered for campus accommodations.

VISITING FELLOWS

The Seminary offers its facilities to a limited number of mature scholars who wish to engage in research. Such students are listed as Visiting Fellows and are granted the use of the library. The privilege of attending classes is open to them, provided they have the permission of the Registrar and the professors involved. Limited housing facilities on campus are available. Applicants should correspond with the President.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

A student who has taken part of the theological course in another institution, and who desires to become a candidate for the M.Div. degree, or for the M.A. degree in Christian education, may make application for admission with advanced standing. In addition to the regular admissions credentials outlined earlier, such an applicant must present a letter from the institution in which he or she currently is enrolled, certifying to his or her good standing and dismissing him or her to this Seminary. Candidates in other programs may not apply credits earned elsewhere toward the Princeton requirements.

A maximum of twenty-six units of course credit will be received in transfer toward either the M.Div. degree or the M.A. degree in Christian education, even though the applicant may have completed more than a year's work in another institution. In no case will a period of internship be accepted in fulfillment of course requirements, although it may serve to reduce the number of field education units that must be completed under the supervision of Princeton Seminary.

Transfer credit toward the M.Div. degree will be received only from programs that lead to the first professional degree in ministry, conducted by recognized schools of theology. Work completed more than six years before the contemplated date of transfer, or courses passed below the grade of B, may not be accepted. A candidate for the M.A. degree in Christian education may on occasion be permitted to apply university graduate work toward the program requirements, but these credits will subsequently be disallowed if he or she changes to the M.Div. program.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Along with the other admission credentials, an international student desiring to enter the Seminary is required to have sent to the Director of Admissions (or, in the case of a Ph.D. applicant, the Director of Ph.D. Studies) a statement from his or her national church endorsing his or her educational plans as necessary preparation for a position of leadership in that church.

Not infrequently an application is received from a student whose preparatory education reflects a system rather different from that typical of the United States. In such instances, the equivalent of the A.B. degree is considered to be four years of regular academic study, primarily in the humanities, arts, and sciences, beyond the secondary (G.C.E.) level. Three additional years of full-time study, principally in the disciplines of theology, are then required to establish M.Div. equivalency.

In the case of an international student whose native language is not English, final approval of the application shall be contingent upon the receipt of a certificate of proficiency in written and spoken English. The basis of evaluation shall be the examination prepared by the Educational Testing Service unless the Director of Admissions or Committee on Ph.D. Studies shall specify an alternative instrument. The fee for any such test shall be borne by the applicant. After the student has undertaken a Seminary program, he or she may be required to withdraw from candidacy or from further study if, in the judgment of the faculty, he or she is found to be inadequately prepared in the English language.

MID-YEAR ADMISSION

Under ordinary circumstances the student should begin Seminary work in the fall of the year. For good reasons, however, candidates for the M.Div., M.A., and Th.M. degrees, as well as Special students, may undertake their studies at the beginning of the second semester. This privilege cannot be extended to candidates for the Ph.D. degree.

TEACHER CERTIFICATION

Through a cooperative arrangement with Princeton University's Teacher Preparation and Placement Program, it is possible for selected Seminary students to obtain state secondary school teacher certification. Inquiries should be directed to Mr. Wall at the School of Christian Education.

MATRICULATION

Entering students who have presented satisfactory credentials are matriculated by subscribing to the following declaration required by the 1811 Plan of the Seminary:

“Deeply impressed with a sense of the importance of improving in knowledge, prudence, and piety, in my preparation for the Gospel ministry, I solemnly promise, in a reliance on divine grace, that I will faithfully and diligently attend on all the instructions of this Seminary, and that I will conscientiously and vigilantly observe all the rules and regulations specified in the plan for its instruction and government, so far as the same relate to the students; and that I will obey all the lawful requisitions, and readily yield to all the wholesome admonitions of the Professors and Trustees of the Seminary, while I shall continue a member of it.”

COMPLETION OF PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Every degree candidate is responsible for ascertaining whether his or her program of courses will fulfill the graduation requirements. The Office of the Registrar maintains current records on all students except Ph.D. and D.Min. candidates, who are served by the Ph.D. and D.Min. offices respectively, and students may review their progress during normal business hours. The Office of Professional Studies also is available to provide assistance in this respect. Although grade reports are issued at the close of each semester, the Seminary is not responsible for calling attention to deficiencies in a student's progress unless those deficiencies are made the basis for disciplinary action.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Additional rules and regulations governing life at the Seminary and the maintenance of candidacy are contained in the Handbook. This publication, issued each year at the beginning of the autumn semester, represents a portion of the educational contract between the student and the Seminary. Particular attention is called to the section on Standards for Satisfactory Progress, a federally-mandated guide to eligibility for certain kinds of financial assistance.

As an essential part of the admission process, applicants are requested to provide several kinds of information regarding their personal and academic background. Failure to make written disclosure of information solicited on the application form, or misrepresentation in the information supplied, constitutes a prima facie basis for denial of admission. Where omissions or misrepresentations come to light after matriculation at the Seminary, and are reasonably believed to cast doubt upon the student's suitability for theological study, he or she is subject to dismissal.

OTHER EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES
AT THE SEMINARY

THE
THEOLOGY

EACH SUMMER, usually during the early weeks of July, the Princeton Institute of Theology is in session on the campus. Ministers, educators, and church laypersons share for ten days in the classes, forums, workshops, and convocations. Guest professors and pastors from across the nation and overseas, as well as Princeton faculty members and international representatives, provide the leadership in thought and discussion. The year 1986 is the forty-fifth in which several hundred men and women from many denominations and many areas of service will gather for instruction and inspiration. Inquiries may be addressed to The Princeton Institute of Theology, Princeton Theological Seminary, CN821, Princeton, New Jersey 08542.

The program for the 1986 Institute, June 30-July 10, with the focus on the theme "Let the Church Be the Church," is as follows:

BIBLE HOURS:

First Week—Peter W. Mackey, "Jesus, Master of Metaphor"

Second Week—Terence E. Fretheim, "Presence, Power, and Prayer: Old Testament Perspectives on God"

CONVOCATIONS:

First Week—Wallace M. Alston, Jr., "The Two Natures of the Church"

Second Week—Jane Dempsey Douglass, "The Church: Called into Life by the Spirit"

EVENING ADDRESSES:

First Week—Thomas W. Gillespie and Bryant M. Kirkland

Second Week—J. Randall Nichols, M. William Howard, Jr., and Lewis B. Smedes

ELECTIVE COURSES AND WORKSHOPS:

- The Significance of the Congregation in the Shaping of Faith*—Craig R. Dykstra
- The Preacher as Troubadour*—Bryant M. Kirkland
- How to Develop a Praying Church*—Hughes Oliphant Old
- On Being Ethical and Christian*—Charles C. West
- Speech Workshop*—W. J. Beeners
- Anger and Authority in the Church*—Suzanne P. M. Rudiselle
- The Teaching Pastor in the Learning Congregation*—Darrell L. Guder
- The Ministry of Martin Luther King, Jr., as a Model for All Christians*—M. William Howard, Jr.
- The Church: The Center and the Cutting Edge in an Age of Pluralism*—Lamin Sanneh
- The Ordinary Gifts*—Lewis B. Smedes
- Chamber Theatre Workshop*—William Brower
- Communities and Death: A Sociological Introduction to Ways in which Communities Prepare for and Respond to Disaster*—Richard K. Fenn

CENTER OF CONTINUING EDUCATION

Director: RONALD C. WHITE, JR.

Associate Director: SUZANNE P. M. RUDISELLE.

THE Center of Continuing Education on the campus of Princeton Theological Seminary offers ministers and laypersons an opportunity to participate further in theological inquiry and to increase their effectiveness for ministry. Its purpose is to bring small groups to the campus, away from the pressure of the heavy daily schedule of parish or office, to work under competent guidance and to use the facilities of a great theological library. Seminars are scheduled weekly and usually extend from Monday afternoon through Thursday noon.

In order to meet the many needs of ministry, a large variety of programs are offered, including seminars in evangelism, mission, and outreach; music, literature, and art; pastoral care and counseling; preaching and communication; management in voluntary organizations; human relations; seminars for specialized groups; Christian education; intentionality and personal leadership; special aspects of ministry; spirituality, prayer, and worship; and philosophy, theology, and Bible.

Seminars for specialized groups include dialogue seminars (e.g., Jews and Christians, clergy and lawyers) and multiple staff events. Seminars dealing with special aspects of ministry treat such subjects as ecumenism, ministry to youth, and ministry with and to the elderly.

In addition to the seminars and workshops, the Center of Continuing Education has twenty-eight directed reading study guides. Each contains a brief introduction and a list of ten to fifteen books arranged in order of suggested reading. The majority of the guides has been prepared by members of the faculty. The reading guide service is conducted by mail, with books being loaned from the Center's book room. There is no charge except for the cost of return postage.

Another service of the Center of Continuing Education is to assist in making arrangements for accommodations and meals for those wishing to come for a brief period of independent reading and study, using the facilities of Speer Library.

Facilities

The Center of Continuing Education has accommodations for fifty-four residents. The physical facilities include Adams House, which contains meeting rooms and sleeping accommodations for thirteen participants, and Erdman Hall for Continuing Education, a modern air-conditioned building that will house thirty-eight persons. The Center is located directly across from Speer Library and a short distance from the Chapel and dining hall. Meals are available in the cafeteria during the regular academic year, with the exception of the recess periods at Christmas and during the spring.

A brochure is available in which the program of the Center and a schedule of fees is set forth in detail. This brochure, together with registration forms and additional information concerning opportunities at the Center, may be obtained by addressing the Center of Continuing Education, 12 Library Place, Princeton, New Jersey 08540.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Director: DAVID H. WALL.

Assistant to the Director: KAY VOGEN.

THE SUMMER SCHOOL is designed to make graduate theological education available to certain persons unable to attend the Seminary during the regular school year; to provide opportunities for additional work for students already enrolled in the Seminary; to enrich the institution's continuing education program; to provide a context in which intensive experimental work in theological education may be undertaken; and to incorporate such elements of summer work as the language program. Courses are open both to degree candidates and to properly qualified unclassified students. Each course carries three units of academic credit unless otherwise stated.

The program, nine weeks in duration, is divided into three three-week sessions. A one-week course which is followed by a month of independent study may be selected during the last session.

Courses regularly are offered in the following subject areas: biblical studies, theology and ethics, church history, homiletics, Christian education, church administration, evangelism, and pastoral theology.

Biblical Hebrew and New Testament Greek are offered during an intensive eight-week session. Because these courses are taught simultaneously, only one language may be pursued during the summer. Each language course carries six units of academic credit.

The schedule for 1986 is as follows:

SUMMER LANGUAGE PROGRAM: June 9-August 1, 1986

OT4S Biblical Hebrew. J.J.M. Roberts

NT4S New Testament Greek. Michael J. Gorman

FIRST PERIOD: June 9-27, 1986

S110 Judges and Ruth: Discovering Biblical Narrative. David M. Gunn

S222 Calvin's Institutes and Commentary on Romans. Edward A. Dowey, Jr.

S425 Holy Living and Dying: The Relation of Liturgy and Ethics. Stanley Hauerwas

S804 Preaching in Context. William H. Willimon

SECOND PERIOD: June 30-July 18, 1986

- SP01 Fundamentals of Expression: Experimentation with Sound and Sense in Speech. W. J. Beeners and Staff (one unit)
S152 The Gospel of John. David M. Hay
S236 Main Themes in American Church History. Henry Warner Bowden
S551 Spiritual Theology. Diogenes Allen
S613 The Bible and Pastoral Care. Donald E. Capps
S714 Christian Education Theory: Options and Issues. Sara Little
S806 The Uses of Story in Preaching. Donald F. Chatfield
S951 Conflict in Religious Organizations. Geddes W. Hanson

THIRD PERIOD: July 21-August 8, 1986

- S115 Community in the Old Testament. Paul D. Hanson
S330 Christian Truth and Cultural Barriers. Samuel H. Moffett and Eileen F. Moffett
S561 Narrative Christology. George W. Stroup
S610 Faith and the Pastoral Counselor. Carroll Saussy
S730 Christian Truth and Cultural Barriers. Samuel H. Moffett and Eileen F. Moffett
S925 The Pastor-Evangelist at Work. Richard S. Armstrong

SPECIAL PERIOD: August 4-8, 1986 (followed by one month of independent study)

- S225 Piety, Power, and Politics. John M. Mulder
S705 Religious Imagination and Models of Religious Education. Gloria Durka

Courses are arranged with a view to providing coverage of a variety of areas within theological thought and practice that are particularly significant for the ministry today. For the most part, they are organized so that Th.M. candidates may develop coherent programs even though formal study must be confined to the summer months. Candidates for the Th.M. degree in the field of pastoral theology, however, may take no more than half of the required work during summer sessions. Students (except those enrolled for a language) may select one course only during each three-week period. Language students may take an additional course during the Special Period.

For Th.M. candidates and M.A. (theological studies) candidates, course selection is subject to approval by the student's faculty adviser. M.Div. candidates are governed by the regulations on p. 35 of this catalogue, and should check with the Director of Professional Studies when selecting courses. For M.A. (Christian education) candidates, course selection is subject to approval by the director of the School of Christian Education.

The Monday through Friday class schedule is as follows:

9:00 a.m. - 10:20 a.m.	First Period
10:20 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.	Break (Chapel services Tuesdays and Thursdays)
11:00 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.	Second Period

Afternoons and evenings are free for study, recreation, and special events. (Optional Greek and Hebrew review sessions may be offered in the afternoons.)

ACCOMMODATIONS

Dormitory facilities are available throughout the nine-week summer session. Students who occupy these facilities are required to take their meals in the Campus Center.

Charges for the summer school are detailed in the chapter of this catalogue entitled "Finances."

PROGRAM FOR 1987

The dates for the 1987 summer school will be: First Session, June 8-26; Second Session, June 29-July 17; Third Session, July 20-August 7; Language Courses, June 8-July 31.

For further information concerning the summer school, contact: Office of the Summer School, Princeton Theological Seminary, 108 Stockton Street, Princeton, New Jersey 08540.

INTER-INSTITUTIONAL ARRANGEMENTS

RELATIONS of academic reciprocity have been established between Princeton Theological Seminary and Princeton University, Westminster Choir College, and New Brunswick Theological Seminary. Although the terms of these arrangements vary slightly from school to school, in general they permit a degree candidate at the Seminary to enroll for courses in one of the other institutions without the payment of additional tuition charges.

Courses taken under an inter-institutional arrangement may be credited toward a Seminary degree provided they are appropriate to the character and level of the student's program. Except under the most unusual circumstances, a Seminary student is limited to one course in a cooperating institution during any semester, and the total number of such courses that may be applied to a degree at the Seminary also is limited.

Information on procedures to enroll for work in another institution, and on applicable regulations and restrictions, may be secured from the Office of the Registrar.

Inter-institutional policies do not permit a Seminary student to be matriculated simultaneously in another of the participating schools.

Princeton University*

COURSES OF STUDY

The courses of study have been projected for the academic year 1986-1987 and, in a few instances, for the year 1987-1988. The program of courses is subject to such changes as circumstances may require. Any course for which there is insufficient enrollment may be cancelled by the Seminary.

THE ACADEMIC YEAR is divided into two semesters, each approximately 15 weeks in length. Courses carry three units of academic credit unless otherwise stated in the description.

A full-time program for M.Div. and M.A. (Christian education) candidates ordinarily consists of thirteen units each semester; for other master's candidates, twelve units each semester. The minimum load for full-time candidacy in the M.Div. and M.A. (Christian education) programs is ten units per semester.

Arrangement of Catalogue Entries

Courses are identified by codes consisting of two letters and two numbers. The letter portion of each code designates the field and department in which the offering is listed. These designations are:

Code	Field	Department
AD	Church Administration	Practical
CH	Church History	History
CS	Christianity and Society	History
DS	Ph.D. Seminar	All
EC	Ecumenics	History
ED	Christian Education	Practical
EM	Evangelism and Parish Ministry	Practical
ET	Christian Ethics	Theology
HD	History of Christian Doctrine	Theology
HR	History of Religions	History
MU	Church Music	Practical
NT	New Testament	Biblical
OT	Old Testament	Biblical
PH	Philosophy	Theology
PR	Preaching and Worship	Practical
PT	Pastoral Theology	Practical
SP	Speech and Communication	Practical
TH	Doctrinal Theology	Theology

The number portion of the code, beyond providing a unique identification for each offering, in some instances also indicates the level at which the class is taught. Numbers 00–09 designate introductory level work that does not ordinarily carry Th.M. credit; numbers 80–99 designate advanced level work often demanding extensive prerequisite knowledge. If a course is listed in more than one field, it ordinarily carries a separate code for each field.

Specific prerequisites and limitations on enrollment are set forth in field headings, in individual descriptions, and in separately available semester listings.

INTRODUCTORY AND LANGUAGE CLASSES

OT01 ORIENTATION TO OLD TESTAMENT STUDIES

An introduction to selected perspectives of the Old Testament through lectures, preceptorial group study, and directed reading in the Old Testament itself and in secondary literature. Required of M.Div. candidates in the first year of study. Not open to Th.M. or Ph.D. candidates. Three credits.

First Semester, 1986-87

MR. ROBERTS

First Semester, 1987-88

OT03,-04 INTRODUCTORY BIBLICAL HEBREW AND EXEGESIS

First semester: introduction to Hebrew grammar; second semester, completion of Hebrew grammar and introduction to exegesis, using selected Old Testament passages. The two semesters are designed to be taken in immediate sequence. If the sequence is interrupted, a placement examination must be passed before the second semester is begun. Three credits each semester.

Full Year, 1986-87

MR. J. ARMSTRONG AND MS. SANDERSON

Full Year, 1987-88

OT05 REVIEW OF HEBREW GRAMMAR

Rapid review of Hebrew grammar for persons who have studied the language in college but who lack the proficiency necessary for exegetical work. Course may not be repeated. One credit.

First Semester, 1986-87

DEPARTMENTAL STAFF

First Semester, 1987-88

OT06 HEBREW TRANSLATION

Designed to enable students to acquire and maintain proficiency in the reading of Hebrew prose, with an emphasis on the building of vocabulary. Prerequisite: elementary Hebrew grammar. Course may be repeated in successive semesters. One credit.

Either Semester, 1986-87

DEPARTMENTAL STAFF

Either Semester, 1987-88

OT10 ACCELERATED HEBREW READING

A reading course designed for graduate students and others who desire to gain proficiency in the reading of Hebrew prose. Several books of the Old Testament will be covered in the course of a semester. It is recommended that students with little experience in Hebrew reading consider completing at least one semester of Hebrew Translation before enrolling for this class. Three credits.

First Semester, 1986-87

First Semester, 1987-88

MR. WHITAKER

MS. SANDERSON

MULTI-PROGRAM CLASSES BASED ON THE ENGLISH TEXT

OT11 THE PENTATEUCH: FORMATION OF A PEOPLE

A study of Israel's traditions about its emergence as a people under God's initiative. The prehistory, the patriarchs, exodus from Egypt, the wilderness, Sinai. Various methods of approaching these traditions, the theological perspectives represented, and the historical contexts. Prerequisite: course OT01. Three credits.

First Semester, 1986-87

MS. SAKENFELD

OT12 INTRODUCTION TO THE PROPHETIC LITERATURE

The nature of Hebrew prophecy and its place in Israelite tradition. Study of selected portions of the prophetic books with attention to literary and form criticism, historical setting, and theological perspectives. Concentration on Amos, Hosea, Isaiah, and Jeremiah. Prerequisite: course OT01. Three credits.

1988-89

OT13 THE INTERPRETATION OF DEUTERONOMY

Study and interpretation of Deuteronomy on the basis of the English text. Particular attention will be given to treatment of texts that raise fundamental theological issues and that have played a significant role in theology, liturgy, and preaching. The basic question guiding the course will be how to interpret Deuteronomy for teaching and preaching in the church. A portion of time will be devoted to larger theological themes and concerns as they arise out of the book as a whole. Prerequisite: course OT01. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1986-87

MR. MILLER

OT26 THE BOOK OF JEREMIAH

Study of a work that covers the spectrum from accusing God of rape to promising that God would give a new covenant, writing the law upon people's hearts. The historical setting of the prophet, his message to a nation about to collapse, his physical and emotional suffering, the development of this collection of writings. Theological and pastoral issues such as judgment, repentance, forgiveness, suffering, failure, and prayer. Prerequisite: course OT01. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1987-88

MS. SANDERSON

OT30 THE BOOK OF JOB

Job and the problem of suffering in the light of ancient Near Eastern parallels. A comparative investigation of the historical context, literary genres, motifs, and structure of the book of Job as these bear on its treatment of the problem of suffering. Prerequisite: course OT01. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1987-88

MR. ROBERTS

OT31 OLD TESTAMENT ETHICS

A course designed to deal with Old Testament materials that relate to moral action and ethical reflection in order to help students draw upon biblical resources in their ethical work. Issues to be considered include the relation of ethos and ethics, methodology in ethical reflection, the right and the good and the goal of moral action, work, administration of justice, land and property, marriage and family, the poor, and other topics. Prerequisite: course OT01. Three credits.

First Semester, 1986-87

MR. MILLER

OT32 GOD IN THE OLD TESTAMENT

The course will focus on the central word of the Old Testament, its witness to the God of Israel who was incarnate in Jesus Christ. Such topics as the character or attributes of God, the presence of God, the knowledge of God, distinctiveness and commonality in relation to other religious views of God, the role of anthropomorphic language, and the history of God will be considered. Exploration of these matters in the context of the Old Testament as a whole, and as they affect the way in which we think about Christian theology. Prerequisite: course OT01. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1987-88

MR. MILLER

OT33 FROM MONARCH TO MESSIAH

A study of the development of messianic thought in Israel. The rise of Israelite imperialism, its theological justification, cultic elaboration, and the prophetic transformation of this symbolic pattern. Prerequisite: course OT01. Three credits.

First Semester, 1987-88

MR. ROBERTS

OT35 OLD TESTAMENT INTERPRETATION

A study of the tools and methods available for a faithful understanding of Old Testament texts. The course will include a brief survey of Old Testament interpretation in the history of the church and the issue of the authority of the Old Testament. Selected texts will be studied as exemplars of the application of the tools and methods. Prerequisite: course OT01. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1987-88

MR. SEOW

OT39 WAR AND PEACE IN THE OLD TESTAMENT

Study of the image of Yahweh as divine warrior, the traditions of Israel's warfare and political structures, the imagery of Yahweh as warring against Israel, and the ideal of peace. The meaning of these images and traditions for the people of Israel, and possibilities for their use today in the Christian church. Prerequisite: course OT01. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1986-87

MS. SANDERSON

OT41 PRAYER IN THE BIBLE

A study of the prayers of Scripture and the teaching of Scripture about prayer, dealing with issues such as the nature of prayer, its appropriate subject matter, individual and corporate or private and public prayer, and the relationship between prayer and social action. The course will concentrate on the Old Testament, but attention also will be given to the New Testament and to antecedent and comparative practices such as prayer in the Jewish tradition. An endeavor to understand prayer without dissolving the mystery and to hold in proper tension the personal and the transcendent. Prerequisite: course OT01. Three credits.

First Semester, 1987-88

MR. MILLER

OT43 TEACHING THE BIBLE AS LIBERATING WORD

Biblical images as shapers of Christian identity; Bible stories as reinforcers and contradictors of sexism, racism, and classism. Structuring teaching-learning experiences in which the liberating word may be heard and gain response. Same as course ED36. Prerequisite: course OT01. Three credits.

1988-89

MS. SAKENFELD AND MS. GARDNER

OT47 THEMES IN BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

A study of selected themes common to the two parts of the Christian canon. The course will examine various texts, in their historical and literary context, in which these themes are focused, and will consider their importance for an understanding of Scripture that is both biblical and theological. Same as course NT47. Prerequisites: courses OT01 and NT01. Three credits.

First Semester, 1987-88

MESSRS. OLLENBURGER AND BEKER

MULTI-PROGRAM CLASSES BASED ON THE HEBREW TEXT

OT50 EXEGESIS OF GENESIS

Reading and interpretation of selected portions of the Hebrew text. The course will concentrate on exegetical method, critical problems in the text, and the interpretation of Hebrew narrative. Consideration also will be given to theological issues provoked by the text. Prerequisite: course OT04. Three credits.

First Semester, 1987-88

MR. OLLENBURGER

OT51 THE BIRTH OF A PEOPLE: EXEGESIS OF EXODUS

Reading and exegesis of selected portions of the Hebrew text. Study of the function of narrative, poetry, law, and cult to teach the Israelites who they were, who their God was, and how and why they had come into existence as a people. Prerequisite: course OT04. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1987-88

MS. SANDERSON

OT53 ISRAEL IN THE WILDERNESS: EXEGETICAL STUDIES IN THE BOOK OF NUMBERS

Exegesis of selected portions of the book of Numbers, with emphasis on themes of pilgrim living. The journey of an eager but complaining people guided and disciplined by a strong and compassionate God; shared and disputed leadership, daily bread, daring women, intercessory prayer, judgment and forgiveness, the power of God's spirit. Prerequisite: course OT04. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1986-87

MS. SAKENFELD

OT55 SOLOMON AND THE GOLDEN AGE: HISTORY, LEGEND, AND THEOLOGY

An exegetical study of I Kings 1-12, based on the Hebrew text and focusing on the figure of Solomon. Attention will be directed to the quest for the historical Solomon and to the issue of the relevance of this material for contemporary theological reflection. Prerequisite: course OT04. Three credits.

First Semester, 1986-87

MR. ROBERTS

OT58 EXEGESIS OF FIRST ISAIAH

Reading and exegesis of selected portions of the Hebrew text. Prerequisite: course OT04. Three credits.

First Semester, 1987-88

MR. ROBERTS

OT60 EXEGESIS OF JEREMIAH

Reading and exegesis of selected portions of the Hebrew text, including poetry and prose, prophetic oracle, and narrative. Prerequisite: course OT04. Three credits.

First Semester, 1986-87

MS. SANDERSON

OT61 EXEGESIS OF EZEKIEL

Reading and exegesis of selected portions of the Hebrew text, with emphasis on the prophet's reinterpretation of traditional theological themes to address the traumatic circumstances of his fellow exiles in Babylon. Prerequisite: course OT04. Three credits.

First Semester, 1987-88

Ms. SANDERSON

OT66 PROPHETS OF JUDAH'S RESTORATION

Reading and exegesis of selected Hebrew texts representative of post-exilic prophecy in Judah (Trito-Isaiah, Haggai, Zechariah, etc.). Acquisition and practice of exegetical method in the study of Hebrew prophecy; study of the use by later Hebrew prophets of Israel's dominant theological themes. The way in which Hebrew traditions were interpreted and applied in a situation of restoration, and the disparity of theological views that developed in this period. Prerequisite: course OT04. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1987-88

MR. OLLENBURGER

OT70 EXEGESIS OF THE BOOK OF PSALMS

Exegesis and interpretation of individual psalms with particular attention to those that have a central place in the life, liturgy, and theology of the Jewish and Christian communities; exploration of the role these psalms have played in church and synagogue and their present possibilities for Christian praise, preaching, and prayer. Some attention will be given to larger questions having to do with the Psalter as a whole, such as the Psalter as collection, as prayerbook, as liturgy, and as basis for theology. Designed to enable students both to sharpen their exegetical skills and to deepen their familiarity with and understanding of this significant part of the Bible. Prerequisite: course OT04. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1986-87

MR. MILLER

Second Semester, 1987-88

OT71 EXEGESIS OF ECCLESIASTES

First Semester, 1986-87

MR. MEYER

NT28 INTERPRETATION OF SECOND CORINTHIANS

Analysis of the letter on the basis of the English text, asking how the presence of other authorities and Paul's perception of them shapes his arguments. Prerequisite: course NT01. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1986-87

MR. KRAFTCHICK

NT30 INTERPRETATION OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

An introduction to the discipline of hermeneutics as applied to the literature of the New Testament, with special reference to historical-critical methods of exegesis and problems of a theological interpretation of Scripture. Consideration will be given to the necessity of a philosophical description of the hermeneutical task, with reference to the theories of E.D. Hirsch, Jr., H.G. Gadamer, and Paul Ricoeur. Prerequisite: course NT01. Three credits.

First Semester, 1986-87

MR. GILLESPIE

NT31 THE NEW TESTAMENT AND HERMENEUTICS

An examination of how the interpretative task produces multiple understandings, their validity, and the impact of these understandings on churches, communities, and nations. Analysis of methodologies of New Testament interpretation with special attention to feminist hermeneutics, liberation theologies, and an examination of how New Testament texts have been variously interpreted with reference to particular social agenda in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Prerequisite: course NT01. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1987-88

NT39 LITERARY ASPECTS OF NEW TESTAMENT NARRATIVES

An analysis of how literary features of New Testament texts contribute to the religious meaning of those texts and enhance our understanding of the faith and life of the earliest Christians. An examination of the elements that make the New Testament an artistic and literary masterpiece, with special attention to narrative unity and design, rhetorical technique, the use of metaphor, paradox, and symbol. A survey of the history of research on the literary forms in the New Testament and an analysis of the importance of the Old Testament and other Jewish literature for these understandings. Prerequisite: course NT01. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1986-87

MS. MARTIN

NT42 IMAGES OF SOCIAL DIVERSITY IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

A critical exegetical analysis of pericopae which illumine the images of poverty and wealth, women, and ethnic diversity in the New Testament. Pertinent citations from the Old Testament, sociological approaches, and history of the interpretation of the extended pericopae. An assessment of the contemporary relevance of this research for ministry today. Prerequisite: course NT01. Three credits.

First Semester, 1987-88

NT44 BIBLICAL EXEGESIS IN THE EARLY AND MEDIEVAL CHURCH

Jewish and Hellenistic exegesis; methods of scriptural interpretation in the New Testament; Alexandria and Antioch; hermeneutical writings of the fathers from Origen to Gregory the Great; scholastic principles of exegesis; the fourfold sense of Scripture; the commentaries of the late Middle Ages. Same as course CH25. Prerequisites: one collegiate or seminary course on church history to the Reformation, course NT01, and one other collegiate or seminary course introductory to the Bible. Biblical languages desirable but not mandatory. Three credits.

First Semester, 1986-87

MR. FROELICH

NT47 THEMES IN BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

A study of selected themes common to the two parts of the Christian canon. The course will examine various texts, in their historical and literary context, in which these themes are focused, and will consider their importance for an understanding of Scripture that is both biblical and theological. Same as course OT47. Prerequisites: courses OT01 and NT01. Three credits.

First Semester, 1987-88

MESSRS. BEKER AND OLLENBURGER

NT49 RUDOLF BULTMANN AND THE NEW TESTAMENT

A critical examination of the contributions of Rudolf Bultmann to the study of the New Testament in the twentieth century and their implications for exegesis and interpretation today. Attention will be given both to Bultmann's own concerns (particularly demythologization, hermeneutics, the historical Jesus and the kerygma, faith and history) and to the various responses to Bultmann among students of the New Testament and theologians. Prerequisite: course NT01. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1987-88

MR. DE BOER

MULTI-PROGRAM CLASSES BASED ON THE GREEK TEXT

NT50 THE LIFE AND THOUGHT OF JESUS OF NAZARETH

A struggle with the question of what can be known reliably about Jesus' life and essential message. Through references to the Jewish literature contemporaneous with Jesus, with insights obtained from archaeological research, and by an in-depth exploration of selected New Testament texts especially, the course will search for the history behind and within the kerygmatic faith. The dimension of history and faith in all credal formulae. Prerequisites: courses NT01 and NT04. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1986-87

MR. CHARLESWORTH

NT54 EXEGESIS OF THE GOSPEL OF MATTHEW

Reading and exegesis of the Greek text. Special attention to Matthew's reshaping of his sources and the historical situation of the community he addresses as means for interpreting his message. Prerequisites: courses NT01 and NT04. Three credits.

First Semester, 1987-88

MR. MARCUS

NT55 EXEGESIS OF THE GOSPEL OF MARK

Reading and exegesis of the Greek text. Special attention to the literary structure of the gospel, historical reconstruction of the community addressed, and parallels from contemporary sources as means for investigating Mark's message. Prerequisites: courses NT01 and NT04. Three credits.

First Semester, 1986-87

MR. MARCUS

NT58 THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

Selected readings from this chronicle of the life and faith of the earliest church. Identification of major motifs, exploration of historical-critical issues, and examination of Luke's concept of salvation history. An assessment of the relevance of Acts for life and ministry today. Prerequisites: courses NT01 and NT04. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1987-88

MS. MARTIN

Second Semester, 1987-88

MR. MEYER

NT64 EXEGESIS OF GALATIANS

Reading and exegesis of the letter, with special reference to its literary genre, the historical situation it addresses, and the contemporary significance of the gospel of liberation which it attests. Prerequisites: courses NT01 and NT04. Three credits.

First Semester, 1987-88

MR. GILLESPIE

NT67 THE PASTORAL EPISTLES

A critical exegetical investigation of the epistles to Timothy and Titus, with special attention to the historical and linguistic problems of authorship, setting, and their place as documents in the history of earliest Christianity. The significance of church order, ethics, and eschatology will be examined, as well as implications for pastoral leadership development today.

First Semester, 1987-88

NT68 EXEGESIS OF FIRST AND SECOND THESSALONIANS

Reading and exegesis of selected portions of the Greek text. Designed as a first course in Greek exegesis for entering M.Div. candidates. Prerequisite: course NT04. Three credits.

First Semester, 1986-87

MR. KRAFTCHICK

NT74 EXEGESIS OF THE APOCALYPSE OF JOHN

Translation and exegesis of the Greek text, with special attention to Semitic influences upon it and to the historical milieu that produced the masterpiece; comparison of the Apocalypse with contemporaneous Jewish apocalypses. Discussion of the importance and place of historical research for faith and for present-day forms of "apocalyptic" enthusiasm. Prerequisites: courses NT01 and NT04. Three credits.

First Semester, 1986-87

MR. CHARLESWORTH

NT77 CREEDS AND HYMNS IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

An examination of selected hymnic and credal materials in the New Testament epistles; the criteria by which they may be identified; problems of reconstructing their forms and their original settings; their importance as evidence for developments in New Testament theology and worship. Prerequisites: courses NT01 and NT04. Three credits.

First Semester, 1987-88

MR. MEYER

NT78 EXEGETICAL STUDY OF NEW TESTAMENT THEMES

Exegetical exploration of selected New Testament themes, designed both to provide a deeper understanding of those themes and to encourage the use of New Testament Greek in theological inquiry. Subject for the first semester will be forgiveness; for the second semester, prayer. Prerequisites: courses NT01 and NT04. One credit each semester.

Either Semester, 1987-88

MS. EDWARDS

Examination of the transmission of Jesus traditions in Palestine before A.D. 70., employing exegetical, historical, and sociological perceptions and methodologies. Greek recommended but not required. Designed for advanced students. Same as course CS85. Three credits.

First Semester, 1986-87

MESSRS. CHARLESWORTH AND FENN

PH.D. SEMINARS

These classes are designed for and normally restricted to candidates for the Ph.D. degree. Exceptions, never to constitute the majority of a class, may be made only where the student demonstrates a command of the scholarly tools ordinarily necessary for doctoral work.

DS01 METHODOLOGY IN OLD TESTAMENT THEOLOGY

The seminar will focus on the problematics of Old Testament theology in light of the methodological challenges of post-enlightenment historical consciousness and critical historical approaches to Old Testament traditions and Israel's faith. Emphasis upon the history of research as well as upon contemporary proposals. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1987-88

MR. OLLENBURGER

DS02 NEAR EASTERN BACKGROUNDS TO ISRAELITE RELIGION

A study of the ancient religious world out of which the biblical faith arose and in which it began to take shape, giving equal attention to elements of continuity and discontinuity. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1986-87

MR. ROBERTS

DS04 BIBLICAL HISTORY IN ITS ANCIENT NEAR EASTERN CONTEXT

A study of selected problems in the history of Israel, with emphasis on methodology and the use of epigraphic and non-epigraphic remains in historical reconstruction. Three credits.

First Semester, 1987-88

MR. SEOW

DS05 EXEGESIS AND INTERPRETATION

Designed to emphasize the development of skill in the exegesis and analysis of biblical texts so that literary, historical, and theological conclusions may be drawn from them. Attention will be given to textual criticism, literary criticism, form criticism, and the like, with concern for methodology and procedure in the student's own research and reporting of results. The seminar also will deal with larger questions of interpretation, such as the relation of Old Testament and New Testament; the use of particular texts in the church, past and present; and the theological appropriation of biblical texts. Three credits.

First Semester, 1986-87

MR. MILLER

DS11 STUDIES IN THE GOSPEL AND EPISTLES OF JOHN

An examination of selected problems in recent Johannine research, with special attention to the issues of method in literary analysis, historical reconstruction, and interpretation. Three credits.

PROGRAM IN SOCIAL AND EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH, MEASUREMENT, AND EVALUATION

This program, which draws upon the facilities of Princeton Theological Seminary and the Educational Testing Service of Princeton, New Jersey, is designed to prepare Christian educators and others to use established methods of research and measurement in the solution of problems in Christian education and social research in religion. It is flexible enough to meet the needs of those who desire a general acquaintance with the methods of research and evaluation sufficient to read and understand relevant research literature, and of those who wish to conduct research and evaluation studies and to build the instruments to be used in such studies. In addition to the other catalogued courses in Christian education, theology and personality, and Christianity and society, the following offerings are available for qualified applicants.

ED71 INTERPRETING SOCIAL AND EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH

An introduction to the place of statistical and logical concepts in the solution of problems in Christian education and social research in religion. The emphasis is on understanding and evaluating the research of others rather than on skills in original research. Basic concepts include sampling, statistical significance, survey methods, and problem analysis. Three credits.

First Semester, 1986-87

E.T.S. STAFF

ED72 DESIGNING SOCIAL AND EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH

Methods of collecting, organizing, and interpreting evidence relevant to the solution of educational problems and problems in social research in religion. Principles of measurement and techniques of evaluation, including methods of test development and methods of developing other evaluative instruments, analyzing educational and religious objectives, preparing a test or research plan, writing and editing test items, and analysis of research data. The emphasis is on the development of skill in applying techniques to problems in Christian education and social research in religion. Offered if enrollment warrants. Prerequisite: course ED71 or its equivalent. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1986-87

E.T.S. STAFF

ED74 INTERNSHIP IN SOCIAL AND EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH, MEASUREMENT, AND EVALUATION

Available to one or two selected students each year. The applicant must have completed the courses indicated above and must present evidence of being prepared to profit from experience at the Educational Testing Service. A specific project, a plan of study, or arrangements to participate in some ongoing project at the Educational Testing Service ordinarily constitutes such evidence. It is expected that each applicant will have an opportunity to discuss the plan with one or more members of the Educational Testing Service staff prior to its formal presentation. At the time of acceptance, the intern is assigned to an Educational Testing Service staff member who serves as adviser during the period of internship. The adviser is available for consultation, but the intern is expected to take the initiative in planning and pursuing the studies, calling on the adviser for assistance in drawing upon the resources available at the institution in relation to specific problems as they arise. Ordinarily, an internship involves full-time work and study at the Educational Testing Service for a period of six weeks during the summer or an equivalent amount of time over a semester. Persons interested in academic credit for the internship should consult with Ms. Gardner and must declare such intention to the Registrar in advance. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1987-88

MULTI-PROGRAM CLASSES

PR11 THE SPIRITUAL LIFE OF THE PREACHER

An exploration of how spiritual disciplines deepen and enrich the practice and content of preaching. From the perspective of the preacher, several sources for spiritual development and growth will be explored: Native American spirituality, Jewish spirituality, feminist spirituality, and selected traditional spiritual practices within Christianity. Class participants will be asked to look critically at their own spiritual life as foundational for their preaching ministry. Limited to twenty-five students; preference given to persons closest to graduation. Three credits.

First Semester, 1986-87

Ms. SMITH

PR21 PARISH PREACHING

Preaching within the context of a contemporary parish, types and handling of resources, planning a year's pulpit work, addressing the individual Christian and the church, and relating one's study program to the entire program of congregational life. Prerequisite: course PR01. Three credits.

First Semester, 1986-87

MR. RANDOLPH

PR23 PASTORAL PREACHING

Exploration of preaching in context of the pastoral dimensions of ministry, with emphasis on the role of preaching in pastoral care; dealing with human problems and life situations in sermons; and understanding emotional processes in listeners as they influence communication. Student sermons will be presented. Prerequisites: courses PR01 and PR02. Three credits.

1987-88

MR. NICHOLS

PR25 PREACHING THE PARABLES OF JESUS

A survey of recent parable interpretation, an exploration of the variety of preaching styles appropriate to the parables, and exegetical-homiletical studies of representative parables. Opportunity will be given for the writing of sermons based upon parables. Prerequisite: course PR01. Enrollment limited to twenty students, with preference given to seniors. Three credits.

1987-88

MR. LONG

PR33 PREACHING FROM THE WISDOM LITERATURE

Second Semester, 1986-87

MR. McMICKLE

PR41 THEOLOGY OF PREACHING

A study of significant theories of preaching from Augustine to the present, including an analysis of the necessary components of the preaching situation, as they are described in representative treatises on preaching. The student will be expected to formulate a theological understanding of preaching which will incorporate the form, content, and purpose of preaching. Lectures, readings, preceptorials, term paper. Prerequisite: course PR01. Three credits.

First Semester, 1986-87

MR. MASSA

PR51 PREACHING AND CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE

Readings and discussions focused upon three theological themes: providence, justice, and forgiveness. The contemporary pertinence of these themes will be examined, and sermons on the themes will be developed. Prerequisite: course PR01. Limited to twenty students; preference given to those closest to graduation. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1986-87

MR. LONG

PR52 FROM TEXT TO SERMON

This course will focus on the movement from biblical texts to sermons on those texts. Several types of text will be examined, such as historical narrative, proverb, miracle story, parable, lament, and epistle. Prerequisite: course PR01. Limited to twenty students; preference given to those closest to graduation. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1986-87

MR. LONG

PR55 PARISH PREACHING COLLOQUY

Pragmatics of weekly parish preaching will be explored under four categories: (a) methods of sermon preparation and textual study, (b) the integration of preaching with other pastoral work, (c) reading and continuing education in relation to preaching, and (d) setting preaching objectives and planning sermons. Parish ministers will be invited to participate in the course in conversation with students and homiletics staff to explore different approaches to the four topics. Prerequisites: courses PR01 and PR02. Three credits.

First Semester, 1986-87

MR. NICHOLS

PR60 PREACHER AND POET DIALOGUE

An exploration of what the preacher can learn from the poet's rigorous and diligent commitment to language as artistic expression and creation. The class will examine issues of common concern to preacher and poet alike: the language of paradox, immediacy in language, the role of the imagination in language, and the power of images to create and embody new reality. Student sermons will be presented. Prerequisite: courses PR01 and PR02. Limited to twenty students; preference given to those closest to graduation. Three credits.

Second Semester, 1986-87

MS. SMITH

PR65 THE CHURCH AS COMMUNICATION SYSTEM

Exploration of the concept and experience of the congregation as interrelated system of communication. Using the class itself as a working model of such a system, students are helped to discover how ministers' communication both influences and is influenced by the context in which they work. Topics to be covered include: overt and covert communication, the relation of the minister's self-perception to his or her messages, and how special features of group life determine communicative effectiveness. An emphasis will be placed on ecclesiology as a theological perspective on the congregation's system life. Same as course AD75. Three credits.

1987-88

MR. NICHOLS

RELIGION AND SOCIETY PROGRAM

Professors: R. K. FENN, P. J. PARIS, C. C. WEST.

Associate Professor: C. A. RYERSON.

Assistant Professors: L. G. LIVEZEY, B. C. OLLENBURGER.

Guest Professor: M. M. THOMAS.

THE PROGRAM in Religion and Society engages students and professors in the work of scholarship, teaching and social praxis, involving a critique of ideology and a renewal of vision and strategy for socio-political transformation.

At all academic levels, but particularly in connection with Ph.D. studies, four major dimensions of theological and critical inquiry shape the work of the field.

1. Historical praxis forms the context for student projects in this field. An important aspect of this historical praxis is the place of religious institutions in social and political transformation within various traditions.
2. Theological interpretation brings the heritage of a people under critical inquiry, exploring religious phenomena, Christian and non-Christian, including the religious implications of secular philosophy.
3. The human sciences play a crucial role in the discipline of religious social ethics. Students are expected to develop an understanding of various perspectives, concepts, and methods in these sciences in ways appropriate to their level of investigation.
4. Christian ethics in interaction with other traditions is central to the field, exploring issues of freedom, justice and peace.

Candidates for the M.Div., Th.M., and Ph.D. degrees may pursue concentrations in this area under the supervision of the Committee on Church and Society. Courses appropriate to the concerns of Religion and Society, as listed below, are offered by several of the academic divisions of the Seminary. Field education also may contribute to such studies on the M.Div. level.

PROGRAM IN ECUMENICS, MISSION, AND HISTORY OF RELIGIONS

Professor: C. C. WEST.

Associate Professor: C. A. RYERSON.

Guest Professors: S. H. MOFFETT, M. M. THOMAS.

THE ECUMENICS, Mission, and History of Religions program aims to widen the horizons of preparation for the ministry with the interdisciplinary inquiry into the challenges and implications of the worldwide mission of the Christian faith. All three segments of the program are integrally interrelated. No one part can be studied in isolation and all demand attention to the cultural and religious, social and political, and geographical contexts of mission.

The program relates to all academic levels as a subsection of the History Department. On the M.Div. level, in addition to the course offerings listed below, field education may include approved internships in mission at home or abroad, with course credit where appropriate. In Ph.D. studies, the program offers six fields of comprehensive emphases:

- History of Christian missions
- Study of one or more non-Christian religions
- Critical study of the methods and issues of social, cultural, and political inquiry across cultural, social, and political lines
- Christian theology in mission context
- Christian social ethics as a dimension of the church's mission
- The ecumenical dimension of Christianity, historical and contemporary

Courses appropriate to a concentration in this area include:

FALL SEMESTER 1986:

Mr. Ryerson
- TH52 ASIAN AMERICAN THEOLOGY AND MINISTRY. Mr. Lee

SPECIAL COURSES

In cases of demonstrated need, a qualified student may make application through an instructor to enroll for a special course in a subject falling within that instructor's field of specialization. Such a course may be given, under the provisions outlined in the following paragraphs and with the approval of the Curriculum Committee, provided that coverage of the same material cannot reasonably be arranged as part of a regular course during the remainder of the student's period of residence. Special courses may not normally be used to fulfill departmental distribution requirements. Courses so arranged must be reported to the Office of the Registrar in accordance with the regulations governing the selection of catalogued electives. Special courses made available by the Seminary are of two types:

Tutorials—classes normally arranged to meet the needs of one student, but on occasion more than one, and involving extensive reading of relevant literature, periodic conferences with the instructor, and a concluding examination or project.

Research Courses—classes arranged on an individual basis to meet the needs of qualified students, and involving independent research on a defined topic and the preparation of a substantial paper.

In the interest of equity, a candidate for the M.Div. or the M.A. degree ordinarily may not carry more than one special course during any given semester. An M.Div. candidate is limited to four such courses during his or her total program; a candidate for the M.A. degree, three special courses. The privilege of enrolling for these courses normally is extended only to persons in candidacy for a degree at the Seminary. Inter-institutional regulations do not permit members of other faculties to offer special courses to Seminary students.

Since special courses are offered over and above an instructor's normal academic load, members of the faculty ordinarily may not give more than two such courses during any semester without the approval of the Academic Dean. Special courses during the summer months are discouraged. Where a tutorial is offered to more than two or three students, approval of the department and the Curriculum Committee is required.

Senior theses are not considered to be research courses and continue to be encouraged in appropriate cases.

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY WORKSHOPS

WORKSHOPS in the Doctor of Ministry program are designed to provide the context for a critical assessment of the candidate's patterns of ministerial practice. Discussions, involving twelve candidates and two members of the faculty, are based upon prepared reports dealing with four focal areas or aspects of ministry. These areas, which also provide the organizing principle for the action-reflection examinations, are (a) theological and ethical aspects of ministry, (b) caring and restorative aspects of ministry, (c) communicative and educative aspects of ministry, and (d) organizational and administrative aspects of ministry.

Commuter workshops, held for two consecutive fall semesters, meet for approximately six hours each week. Intensive workshops, designed for candidates who live beyond commuting distance, meet daily during two periods each three weeks in length during two consecutive summers. The organization of these sessions, through the summer of 1986, is as follows:

SUMMER 1986

Workshop AA: Meeting Daily for Three Weeks

Faculty Personnel: H. A. Koops and P. D. Miller

Workshop BB: Meeting Daily for Three Weeks

Faculty Personnel: R. K. Fenn and J. R. Nichols

Workshop CC: Meeting Daily for Three Weeks

Faculty Personnel: D. E. Capps and L. C. Willard

SUMMER 1987

Faculty Personnel to be announced.

FIELD EDUCATION

Director: HENDRICKS S. DAVIS.

Associate Director: DOROTHY J. SPECHT.

M.A. Director: FRED A. GARDNER.

THE FIELD EDUCATION program is an integral part of the theological curriculum. Students under the supervision of pastors and specialists work at a variety of assignments in particular churches and institutions in the interest of developing (1) a habit of working in the context of disciplined theological reflection; (2) a growing understanding of the church and its ministry; (3) a life style congruent with the gospel; (4) sound ways of relating to different persons; and (5) competencies which are professional in the sense of including mastery of skills with knowledge of the theoretical bases of each.

Assignments are available in churches and institutions of every type in an area that includes two huge metropolitan centers, smaller cities and towns, and rural neighborhoods. A Teaching Church Program offers a high level of supervision for a hundred students each year, under the guidance of pastors who participate in monthly seminars. Prison ministries and other specialized activities enlist a substantial group of participants.

Summer assignments are available in churches and church projects, in national parks, and in clinical training.

M.DIV. REQUIREMENTS

In addition to the other requirements, an approved program of field education, which in the judgment of the Director of Field Education meets the needs of the individual student, is required for graduation.

A minimum program shall include both of the following: (a) A year of satisfactory work in a church under approved supervision. This requirement may be met in two semesters of weekends in a church, or by an internship year. (b) A period of satisfactory work in a field of service appropriate to the student's particular purposes and in accord with the goals, functions, and principles of field education. This requirement may be met in two semesters of weekends, one summer, or an internship year.

Any variation from this program must be with the counsel and approval of the Director of Field Education, who shall decide whether the student's work meets the graduation requirements.

Reports on field education activity are required on January 15 and May 15; summer reports on September 15. All remunerative work is to be reported to the field education office. If this involves over twenty hours a week, the Director of Field Education may recommend to the faculty a reduction in hours or a four-year program.

M.Div. candidates are required to register for field education during each semester of participation, according to the procedures that govern the selection of academic courses. A grade of S (satisfactory) or U (unsatisfactory) is recorded at the conclusion of each term. Registration shall be for one of the following:

FE01,-02 PARISH FIELD EDUCATION

Supervised ministry in the local church. Placement may be in either teaching or non-teaching church settings. Students will have experience in communication, administration, and caring aspects of ministry; opportunity for reflection and evaluation will be provided by supervisors. The sequence FE01,-02 (or FE05,-06) must be successfully completed at least once in every student's M.Div. program. Taken concurrently with academic work.

FE03,-04 SPECIALIZED FIELD EDUCATION

Supervised ministry in institutional or organizational settings. Placement may be in prisons, hospitals, nursing homes, advocacy organizations. Students will engage in a variety of ministry opportunities under the supervision of a chaplain or program director; occasions for reflection and evaluation will be provided by supervisors. Taken concurrently with academic work; sequence may be repeated.

FE05,-06 PARISH INTERNSHIP

Extended supervised ministry in the local church. Placement may be for nine, twelve, or fifteen months in settings across the country; some international opportunities. Students will engage in a broad spectrum of ministry with considerable time to explore areas of particular interest. Normally taken after the middle year; an academic program may not be pursued concurrently.

FE07,-08 SPECIALIZED INTERNSHIP

Extended supervised ministry in institutional or organizational settings. Placement may be for nine, twelve, or fifteen months; opportunities have included university chaplaincies, advocacy organizations, and clinical pastoral education programs. Students will engage in all aspects of specialized ministry with considerable time to explore vocational interests. Normally taken after the middle year; an academic program may not be pursued concurrently.

FE09 SUMMER PARISH FIELD EDUCATION

Intensive supervised ministry in the local church. Minimum of ten weeks of full time work required. Students will have experience in communication, administration, and caring aspects of ministry. In some settings the student may provide supply services during the vacation or study leave of the pastor. May not be taken concurrently with academic work.

FE10 SPECIALIZED SUMMER FIELD EDUCATION

Intensive supervised ministry in institutional or organizational settings. Minimum of ten weeks of full time work required. Placement may be in camp and conference centers, clinical pastoral education programs, and social or neighborhood organizations. May not be taken concurrently with academic work.

M.A. REQUIREMENTS

In addition to the other requirements for the M.A. degree in Christian education, a program of field education is required for graduation. The program shall include the following: (a) An initial field education experience, ordinarily undertaken in the first year, in a church under approved supervision. (b) Either in the summer between the first and second years or during the second year, work in a field of service appropriate to the student's particular purposes and involving the student in supervised leadership.

INTERNSHIPS

The intern program in field education permits an M.Div. candidate who has completed two years of theological education to devote a year to full time in-service training for the ministry, before completing his or her academic course. Internship positions include student pastorates, assistantships, chaplaincies, and other types of ministry. Some internship programs involve work abroad. Intern training programs must be approved by the Director of Field Education and are under his supervision, in cooperation with the employing organization. The intern is considered a regular student in the Seminary during his or her program.

GRADUATE INTERNSHIPS

Opportunities for in-service and clinical training are available to M.Div. graduates who wish to continue practical training for the ministry under supervision. Opportunities for a variety of types of ministry are available and have proved to be a helpful way for younger graduates to begin their vocational work. The Director of Field Education will aid and counsel students in arranging such programs. Graduate interns are not regarded as students in the Seminary during the internship.

LIBRARY RESOURCES

Robert E. Speer Library

Librarian: CHARLES WILLARD.

Associate Librarian for Technical Services: JAMES S. IRVINE.

Serials Librarian: JULIE E. DAWSON.

Assistant to the Librarian: SHARON TAYLOR.

Assistant Librarian for Public Services: SANDRA H. BOYD.

THE LIBRARY building, opened in 1957 and named in honor of Robert E. Speer, has space for approximately 400,000 volumes and 350 readers. In addition to its main reading room, which seats about 115 persons, there are 44 carrel tables in the stack area, unassigned and open to all readers. Other facilities include a graduate study room where advanced students may keep their books, several small seminar rooms, and a smoking lounge. Ten private study rooms are reserved for the use of visiting scholars.

The Collection

Speer Library offers substantial resources for theological study and research at all levels. It now contains over 370,000 catalogued books, pamphlets, and microfilms, including valuable portions of the libraries of Dr. Ashbel Green, Professor John Breckenridge, Dr. William Buell Sprague, Mr. Samuel Agnew, Professor J. Addison Alexander, Dr. John M. Krebs, Dr. Alexander Balloch Grosart, Professor William Henry Green, Professor Samuel Miller, Professor Benjamin B. Warfield, and Dr. Louis F. Benson. It currently receives over a thousand journals, annual reports of church bodies and learned societies, bulletins, transactions, and periodically issued indices, abstracts, and bibliographies.

While popular works are not neglected, a major objective of the library is to acquire comprehensively the basic works of western and, in translation, eastern religious traditions. Primary sources are represented both by original, early editions or reprints and by modern critical editions. The strength of the library is maintained by the acquisition, on a standing-order basis, of all major sets, new critical editions, and scholarly monograph series currently published in the main fields of theological study.

Several special collections should be mentioned. The Louis F. Benson Collection of Hymnology, numbering over ten thousand volumes, provides superior resources for the study of all fields of American and foreign hymnology. The Grosart Library of Puritan and Nonconformist Theology, acquired in 1885 and added to regularly, now contains over five thousand volumes. The Sprague Collection is an unusually large collection of early American theological pamphlets. Over two thousand volumes and three thousand pamphlets dealing with the controversy regarding the proper form of baptism are in the Agnew Baptist Collection. The Alumni Alcove, supported substantially by the donations of authors, preserves their published works as a testimony to the influential position of Seminary graduates and faculty in theological and general literature.

Support

The library is supported by an annual appropriation and by income from restricted endowment funds totaling $2,450,016 from Messrs. R. L. and A. Stuart, Mr. John C. Green, the Reverend Samuel M. Hamill, Mrs. R. L. Kennedy, Mary Cheves Dulles, Professor Theodore W. Hunt, Dr. Louis F. Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Egner, Miss Mabel Gillespie, Mrs. Helen M. T. Locke, Mrs. John F. B. Carruthers, Mr. William L. Ulyat, Mrs. Elizabeth Parke Ballantine, Dr. Katherine Finney and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Finney, Mr. John P. Orendorff, Mr. John G. Buchanan, Miss Margaret I. Vaughan, Mrs. Alice M. Newberry, Mrs. Charlotte W. Newcombe, as well as other alumni and friends.

Additional Facilities

Photocopies of library material in the public domain and, within the provisions of the principle of fair use, of copyrighted material may be made on coin- or key-operated copier machines. The staff also can make arrangements for microfilms of library books and photographs of plates.

Graduates of the Seminary are entitled to borrow books by mail. Further information about this service may be obtained from the library.

In accordance with the terms of an agreement between the Seminary and the University, students of the Seminary are granted free use of the University library, subject to its rules.

Charles G. Reigner Education Reading Room

Faculty Supervisor: FRED A. GARDNER.

The Reading Room, located on the first floor of Tennent Hall, makes available a wide range of literature in Christian education, curriculum, and audio-visual aids. Although intentionally limited in general reference materials, it contains specialized reference works in education and Christian education. The collection includes representative sets of over ninety standard curriculums, more than 10,000 volumes of special contemporary interest, and approximately 100 journals that are received on a regular basis. Other resources include tapes, filmstrips, records, pictures, posters, simulation games, and multi-media titles. Access is primarily through a card catalogue. The Reading Room also publishes lists of newly acquired books, catalogues of the audio-visual collection, and lists of journals received by subscription.

The following equipment is available for minimal rental charges: one tape recorder, one cassette tape recorder, a carousel slide projector, a film strip projector, one record player, and a large portable screen.

Hours for the Reading Room are announced at the beginning of each semester.

Speech Department

Director: W. J. BEENERS.

Director of Instructional Media: WAYNE R. WHITELOCK.

The Speech Department, located in 31 Library Place, maintains a collection of approximately 6,000 tape recordings of lectures, sermons, and other campus events, preserving in their original form many significant theological presentations.

A catalogue of recorded materials is available and descriptive listings from major film distributors are kept on file. Recorded materials are available for private listening without charge; copies of many selections may be requested at minimal cost.

The Speech Studios' technical staff provides instructional media consultation and services to the faculty and academic community. Resource materials and equipment are available for authorized activities on a reservation basis.

When the Seminary is in session, the departmental offices are open Monday through Friday, 8:30–4:30 p.m.

ADDITIONAL DEPARTMENTS AND SERVICES

THE SCHOOL OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

PURSUANT to the action of the Presbyterian General Assembly of 1941, which recommended that colleges of Christian education belonging to the Presbyterian Church should become related to seminaries or colleges, negotiations were entered into between the Trustees of Princeton Theological Seminary and the Trustees of Tennent College of Christian Education in Philadelphia. Following these negotiations the Trustees of Tennent College decided to close the latter institution and to make over its assets in trust to Princeton Theological Seminary. The Seminary, on its part, agreed to carry forward the work of Tennent College upon a graduate level, and to perpetuate the name of Tennent upon the campus of Princeton Theological Seminary and in the Seminary's annual catalogue. The School of Christian Education was inaugurated in September 1944, when a group of young women with college degrees was admitted for the first year of study.

The two-year course embraces basic studies in biblical literature, theology, church history, ecumenics, and education, in addition to special cultural and technical studies designed to give students the most complete preparation possible for teaching the Christian religion in church or secular schools and for administering Christian religious education programs in Protestant and Catholic parishes and institutions. The degree of Master of Arts (M.A.) is conferred upon those who successfully complete the course. In exceptional cases students will be admitted for a shorter period who do not intend to take the full course for a degree, but who desire to equip themselves more fully for some task related to Christian education in which they have been engaged, or desire to engage, at home or abroad.

All inquiries relating to the School of Christian Education should be directed to the Office of Admissions, Princeton Theological Seminary, CN821, Princeton, New Jersey 08542.

The Charles G. Reigner Education Reading Room

The Charles G. Reigner Education Reading Room is located in Tennent Hall. Many of its general reference volumes were gifts to the School of Christian Education from the library of Tennent College of Christian Education. Charles G. Reigner, a Baltimore publisher, was for many years its benefactor. The Reading Room provides additional study space near the education classrooms and the married student apartments on the Tennent campus, and makes available to students and surrounding churches a wide range of literature in Christian education and resources in audio-visual aids. Consult page 125 for additional information concerning the resources of this facility.

OFFICE OF ALUMNI/AE AFFAIRS

Alumni/ae Relations

The Vice President for Alumni/ae Affairs is responsible for the alumni/ae and placement services of the Seminary. His office maintains a roster of all former students which contains such information as current address, a record of achievements, and a biographical synopsis. The office is frequently called upon to research this biographical information, for which service a small fee is charged.

Each decade the office undertakes to publish a Biographical Catalogue listing all alumni/ae of the Seminary. This catalogue contains date and place of birth, degrees received, and places of service. The last Biographical Catalogue, published in 1977, may be purchased from the Theological Book Agency.

The office also maintains contact with over 8,000 former students, more than 800 of whom reside outside the United States. All persons who matriculated at Princeton Theological Seminary, both those who received degrees and those who did not complete a full program, are considered alumni/ae. As members of the Princeton Seminary Alumni/ae Association, they receive the Alumni News, the Princeton Seminary Bulletin, and the annual calendar of events scheduled by the Center of Continuing Education.

Alumni/ae Association

The association, which holds its annual meeting preceding commencement, is engaged in implementing a plan for an alumni/ae council, consisting of representatives from each of twelve areas in the United States. One international member and three members-at-large will be appointed by the council itself, bringing the total membership of the body to sixteen.

Alumni/ae chapters will be developed in each of the twelve areas, some areas having more than one chapter and some chapters covering more than one area. These chapters will assist the Seminary in the recruitment of applicants, provide a network system for alumni/ae relocation, and give support to the Development Office of the Seminary.

The officers of the association serve a two-year term. Currently serving are: President, Dean E. Foose, 64B, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Vice President, Robert W. Battles, Jr., 64M, of Mount Clemens, Michigan; Secretary, Paul S. Stravakos, 69M, of Wheaton, Illinois.

Placement

The Vice President for Alumni/ae Affairs seeks to interview all seniors prior to graduation to review with them their dossiers and vocational plans. He assists all who need help in placement in the variety of ministries available to graduates. His office serves as a clearing house for any church or institution desiring to call or employ a graduate of the Seminary, although teaching positions normally are handled by the Office of Ph.D. Studies. In addition to circulating dossiers for graduating seniors, the office maintains a current vacancy list and other aids to the placement process.

OFFICE OF PUBLIC INFORMATION

The Office of Public Information interprets the life and work of the Seminary to its graduates, to the church, and to the general public. Opportunities for supply preaching and speaking engagements for students and faculty are coordinated by the office. Major events in the Princeton community are highlighted for the Seminary community and the public is kept informed of the many lectures, workshops, and services on the Seminary campus open to them.

All communication with the news media about the Seminary is coordinated through the office as are requests for information and interpretative materials from the judicatories of the church. The office also maintains placement files for former students who seek relocation.

The Director of Public Information works with the Director of Publications to assure that the Alumni/ae News is a high quality publication that keeps alumni/ae informed of the variety and richness of life on campus and the ministry of the Seminary's graduates.

THEOLOGICAL BOOK AGENCY

The Theological Book Agency is located on the ground floor of Mackay Campus Center. In addition to providing the textbooks for all Seminary courses, the store maintains a wide selection of about 8,000 titles representing all fields of theological scholarship, as well as selected other fields related to ministry. The bookstore is under the supervision of a faculty committee which recommends general operating policy.

All books are sold at 10% off the list price, with more expensive volumes sometimes receiving higher discounts. The store offers a variety of services including special ordering, mailing of books, out of print searches, and charge accounts.

During the academic year several events are sponsored, including author signings, readings, and special sales.

The bookstore is open from 1:00 until 6:00 p.m. on Monday, and from 1:00 until 4:00 p.m. on Tuesday through Friday, during the entire year except the week between Christmas and New Year's Day.

b. Dossiers, each	3.00

An orientation fee of $30.00 is charged to all new degree candidates, and to transfer students, payable at the beginning of the initial semester.

⁵ Summer session charges are payable in advance.

⁶ This is the basic Internship tuition charge. Additional or higher charges are made for certain specialized Internships. Complete information may be secured from the Director of Field Education.

⁷ See course schedule announcements for information concerning this fee.

⁸ Full-time students include: M.Div. candidates and M.A. candidates in Christian education who are enrolled for at least ten units during the current semester; Th.M. candidates and M.A. candidates in theological studies enrolled for twelve units; Ph.D. candidates in residence and certain others engaged full time in dissertation preparation; resident Special students. Others are considered part-time. Current fees are not charged to Auditors or to D.Min. candidates.

* Charge subject to adjustment in the event medical premium is revised.

ROOM AND BOARD DURING REGULAR YEAR

Annual Charges for Single Students

Room and board $2,685.00

A description of facilities is found on page 147. Dormitories are open for regular occupancy the Monday preceding the beginning of classes through noon on the day after commencement. Dormitory occupancy will not be available during the summer months except for regularly enrolled summer students.

Charges for Tennent, Roberts, and Wilson Apartments

One-Bedroom Units $ 245.00

Two-Bedroom Units 310.00

Three-Bedroom Units 375.00

A description of facilities is found on page 147.

Board Service

All quoted rates that include board privileges are subject to change.

Board payment covers three meals a day (two meals on Sunday) during periods when the Seminary is in session. Services under the plan begin with breakfast on Monday, September 22, 1986, and conclude with the noon meal on Friday, May 22, 1987. These services are suspended during the following periods of recess:

Thanksgiving: closed all day November 27.

Christmas Recess: suspended after the noon meal on Friday, December 19, and resumed for breakfast on Monday, January 5.

Inter-Semester Recess: suspended after the noon meal on Saturday, January 24, and resumed for breakfast on Monday, February 2.

Spring Recess: suspended after the noon meal on Friday, March 13, and resumed for breakfast on Monday, March 23.

During certain of the periods when regular board services are suspended, the cafeteria may be open on a cash basis. In general, however, students are expected to make their own arrangements for meals when the Seminary is not in session. Fire regulations do not permit cooking in the residence area of the dormitories.

Students who are absent from the Seminary at least two full days each weekend on field education assignments certified by the Office of Field Education will receive a credit of $14.68 for each weekend during which the board plan is in effect.

Students seeking to be excused for medical reasons from board in the dining hall must provide documentation in the form of a letter from a medical doctor citing the medical problem and diet prescribed. The letter should be sent to the Business Office.

Students receiving grant assistance from the Seminary are required to live in Seminary accommodations, if available, unless excused by the Financial Aid Officer.

ROOM AND BOARD DURING SUMMER SESSION

Facilities for single students are available throughout the 1987 summer session. Charges for room and board will be announced. As a general aid in planning, room and board costs for the 1986 summer session were (per three week period) $282.00 for air-conditioned accommodations and $249.00 for other accommodations. Linen service is not included in these charges. Board provides three meals a day, Monday through Friday. There is no board service on weekends.

PAYMENT OF ACCOUNTS

Charges for tuition, fees, board, and room are due and payable on or before the first day of each semester. Rental for Stockton Street and Charlotte Rachel Wilson accommodations is payable monthly, due in advance on the first business day of each month. Payment may be made by mail, or in person at the cashier's window adjacent to the Business Office in the Administration Building.

A handling charge of $5.00 will be assessed for any check payment returned for insufficient funds.

The special arrangement with Princeton University for the use of McCosh Infirmary and Firestone Library is possible through responsible attention to bills incurred by Seminary students. In order to assure continued cooperation, the Seminary will settle such accounts not paid within 60 days and will apply such charges to the student's account with the Seminary.

Payment Plans

In the case of charges payable at the beginning of the semester, the student may elect either (a) to make payment in full before the first class day of the semester, in which instance no service fees will be assessed, or (b) to pay the charges in four equalized monthly installments. During the first semester these installments are due on the first business day of October, November, December, and January; during the second semester, on the first business day of February, March, April, and May. Persons desiring the deferred payment plan must indicate their intention during the first four calendar weeks of the semester. Where the deferred payment option (b) is selected, there will be added to the total semester charges a service fee of $25.00. The payment plan for D.Min. students is outlined on page 131. Special and unclassified students, together with auditors, are responsible for payment in full on the first day of the term.

A service charge at a periodic rate of 1.5% per month (which represents an annual rate of 18%) will be assessed on all unpaid accounts. In the case of the deferred payment plan, the service charge is applied at the end of the month to the amount scheduled to be due for that month.

Where monthly rentals are overdue, a service charge of $5.00 will be assessed on the fifteenth day of each month.

A student's preliminary registration for a new semester will be cancelled unless the Registrar receives certification from the Business Office that all accounts for earlier semesters have been satisfied and that payment in full or a deferred payment agreement for new charges has been received. Priority for enrollment in classes with limited registration will be lost where accounts from a previous semester remain delinquent. No degree may be awarded by the Seminary or transcript issued unless the student has met all financial obligations to the institution.

REFUNDS

If (a) a student withdraws from the Seminary while a semester is in progress, having secured the approval of the Dean of the Seminary for the withdrawal, or (b) a part-time student reduces his or her academic load after the first class day of a semester, having notified the Registrar, charges for the classes discontinued, and for room and board before withdrawal, will be assessed as follows:

1. Tuition:

During first 11 class days of semester	20%
During next 14 class days of semester	50%
Thereafter	100%

2. Room and Board [weekly rates, subject to change] $90.00

No portion of any fee is refunded. If the withdrawal is without the approval of the Dean of the Seminary, the student is liable for the full semester's tuition.

If the student who withdraws from the Seminary has received a financial aid award from the institution, consideration should be given to the special provision under "Grants" on page 136.

If a student withdraws from the Summer Session after classes have begun, he or she shall be responsible for the full tuition charges. If withdrawal occurs before the beginning of classes, a charge of $75 will be assessed. If he or she has been living in one of the campus dormitories, room and board will be pro-rated.

FINANCING A SEMINARY PROGRAM

Basic charges for a single student enrolled in a full-time degree program, including tuition, comprehensive fee, and the cost of room and board, will total approximately $6,085 annually. A single student will find that his or her other expenses during the academic year, exclusive of vacation expenditures and transportation, will be about $1,225.

Married students will find that living costs, in addition to basic tuition and comprehensive fee, vary according to their housing arrangements, food purchases, and personal habits. Students with families should contact the Director of Housing regarding living accommodations.

Seminary financial assistance is granted on the basis of demonstrated need. To assist the Seminary in establishing the individual degree of need, students are asked to submit, on a form provided by the Seminary, an itemized statement of their financial situation, including a budget showing available resources and anticipated expenses. The Director of Student Financial Aid will consult with each such applicant to insure that the factors of self-support, careful utilization of savings, parental assistance, Seminary grants, and educational loans are kept in proper balance. The Seminary will seek to assist each student to establish a financial program that protects him or her from an undue burden of remunerative employment, anxiety about finances, or excessive indebtedness.

Self-Support

It is assumed that a Seminary student will make every effort toward self-support consonant with the demands of his or her program of studies. If it is found that resources will be insufficient for the period of theological study, such financial needs will be a necessary consideration in the development of summer plans. Students will find that positions of service, secured through the Office of Field Education during both the summer and the academic year as part of the educational program, will also provide remuneration.

Other sources of income include employment in the Seminary dining hall, library, book agency, offices, and other on-campus positions. In addition, the Office of Student Financial Aid assists students in locating regular or occasional work in the Princeton area, and assists student spouses in securing employment.

Grants

Applicants for financial aid are considered for grant assistance, regardless of nationality or denominational affiliation. Seminary grants, within the limits of available funds, vary in amount depending upon the student's overall financial situation. Grants are awarded without obligation of repayment, subject to the student's maintaining "satisfactory academic progress" as defined for his or her program. Should a student withdraw or change to part-time status prior to the end of a semester, grant assistance will be subject to reduction based upon the attendance or status period.

Loan Funds

Students of the former United Presbyterian Church who are under the care of a presbytery for a church vocation, or who are candidates preparing for service in one of the boards or agencies of the denomination, may apply for loan assistance from the Vocation Agency of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). In some instances those already engaged in a church vocation with the Presbyterian Church also may apply. Application is made through the Office of Student Financial Aid.

Other denominations, including the former Presbyterian Church in the United States and the United Methodist Church, also make funds available to Princeton Seminary students preparing to enter ministerial or other professional service in the denomination.

A limited number of National Direct Student Loans are also available to students eligible under federal guidelines who also maintain "satisfactory academic progress." In addition, the Office of Student Financial Aid is the certifying office for State Guaranteed and Auxiliary Student Loan applications. Local banks and savings and loan associations normally make such funds available to students.

All such loan funds carry interest charges of from 5% to 12%. Repayment, and the assessment of interest, do not begin until the student has completed full-time study, except for the auxiliary program for which interest is payable from date of loan. Additional loans are not recommended when college and seminary academic indebtedness reaches $12,000.

Additional Information

More detailed written information from the Office of Student Financial Aid concerning aid programs administered by the Seminary is available upon request. This information includes: appropriate application forms and procedures; criteria for selecting recipients, for determining award amounts and limits, and for initial and continuing eligibility; payment arrangements, current direct costs, and estimates of other typical costs; refund policy; aid recipient rights and responsibilities.

Also available are selected listings of outside sources of grant and loan assistance, as well as information about non-Seminary employment opportunities in the area.

In addition, as mandated by federal regulations, summaries of student retention at the Seminary and placement and remuneration surveys of graduates are available upon request from the Alumni/ae Office.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY CANDIDATES

Princeton Doctoral Fellowships and Doctoral Study Grants

Fellowship awards may be made to doctoral students on the basis of demonstrated academic merit and promise of scholarly accomplishment in a chosen field of advanced study. Grant awards are also available to doctoral candidates who demonstrate financial need.

The George S. Green Fellowship for Doctoral Study in Old Testament

One or two fellowships for doctoral work in Old Testament may be awarded for the first year of study to that senior in the Master of Divinity program at the Seminary, or that candidate in the Master of Theology program at the Seminary, who is recommended for outstanding academic achievement and scholarly promise by the professors in Old Testament. The maximum stipend for the fellowship is $8,000.

Doctoral Teaching Fellowships

Approximately twelve doctoral teaching fellowships are awarded annually. A fellow appointed on a full-time basis receives taxable remuneration of $4,297.50, covering 450 hours of service during the academic year. A fellow on half-time appointment receives taxable remuneration of $2,148.75 and performs 225 hours of service. In addition, a fellow in doctoral residence receives a tax-free scholarship of $3,000 for full-time service or $1,500 for part-time service. For fellows who have completed the residence period, this scholarship is $300 or $150 respectively. Fellowships are ordinarily, but not exclusively, awarded to applicants who have completed the first year of doctoral study.

Applicants and candidates in all programs should address inquiries concerning financial assistance to:

SENIOR CLASS FELLOWSHIPS

Fellowships have been established in the Seminary for the pursuit of advanced study in theology. In 1879 Mr. George S. Green of Trenton, N.J., founded a fellowship for the encouragement of advanced study in Old Testament Literature. In 1889 the alumni of the Seminary contributed a fund for a fellowship in New Testament studies. In 1891 Mrs. Elizabeth Robertson, of New York City, established the Archibald Robertson Scholarship. In 1900 Professor William Henry Green, D.D., LL.D., by bequest provided a fund for fellowship purposes. In 1905 by bequest of Mrs. Mary W. Winthrop, of New York City, the Gelston-Winthrop Memorial Fund was created and from this fund an annual appropriation was made by the Trustees for the maintenance of three fellowships. In 1943 a fellowship was established on the Samuel Robinson Foundation. The fellowships were reorganized in 1945 by the Trustees of the Seminary and several fellowships established upon these foundations with an honorarium of $2,000 each. Fellowships are available in Old Testament, New Testament, the Department of History, the Department of Theology, the Department of Practical Theology, and the Program in Religion and Society.

Fellowship Regulations

The fellowships are awarded in accordance with the following rules:

1. In order to become a candidate for a fellowship, a student must be a member of the senior class who has been in residence in the Seminary as a member of the middle class.

2. Not later than April 1, the candidate must indicate to the Office of the Academic Dean his or her intention to submit a thesis in competition and must specify the area in which it is to be considered.

3. The candidate must present for regular academic credit a thesis in a specified field, which shall also be his or her area of senior studies. The thesis shall not have been previously evaluated by any member of the faculty. A copy of the thesis must be delivered at the Office of Academic Dean at or before the close of business on May 1.

4. If the May 1 deadline falls on a weekend, the thesis shall be due at 9:00 a.m. on the Monday next following. This deadline may not be extended for any reason.

5. The fellowship award will be made by the faculty, upon recommendation of the department or program concerned, and will be announced on or about May 15. The faculty in all instances reserves the right not to grant a fellowship during a particular year, if in the judgment of the readers no thesis in the area qualifies for this special recognition.

6. A student who submits a thesis in competition for a fellowship, whether or not he or she is successful in the competition, will receive regular academic credit for the work, provided it meets the usual requirements for a thesis in that senior studies area.

7. A fellow shall pursue studies, principally in the subject in which the fellowship has been awarded, conducting the work either in this Seminary or in some other approved graduate institution. He or she shall submit a program to the Registrar for approval and subsequently shall make to him periodic reports of progress. A fellow shall study for a full academic year, which year shall be the next ensuing after appointment. Permission to postpone study requires Seminary approval. Such request shall be submitted to the Registrar. A fellowship must be used within five academic years.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN OLD TESTAMENT

Established on the George S. Green Foundation

The Senior Fellowship in Old Testament may be awarded to that Senior student who presents the best senior studies thesis in this field and who qualifies under the fellowship regulations outlined above.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN NEW TESTAMENT

Established on the Alumni Foundation, the Archibald Robertson Scholarship and the William Henry Green Foundation

The Senior Fellowship in New Testament may be awarded to that student who presents the best senior studies thesis in this field and who qualifies under the fellowship regulations outlined above.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN HISTORY

The Senior Fellowship in History may be awarded to that student who presents the best senior studies thesis in a division of this department and who qualifies under the fellowship regulations outlined above.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

The Senior Fellowship in Theology may be awarded to that student who presents the best senior studies thesis in a division of this department and who qualifies under the fellowship regulations outlined above.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN PRACTICAL THEOLOGY

Established on the Samuel Robinson Foundation

The Senior Fellowship in Practical Theology may be awarded to that student who presents the best senior studies thesis in a division of this department and who qualifies under the fellowship regulations outlined above.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN RELIGION AND SOCIETY

The Senior Fellowship in Religion and Society may be awarded to that student who presents the best senior studies thesis in this program area and who qualifies under the fellowship regulations outlined above.

The Graduate Study Fellowship for the Parish Ministry

Through the generosity of an anonymous friend there was established for the year 1986-1987 a fellowship for overseas study, to be awarded to an immediate graduate of the Seminary who is a candidate in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and who is dedicated to the parish ministry. Field education performance and academic excellence, including performance on the ordination examinations of the Presbyterian Church, are considered by the faculty in making the award.

FELLOWSHIPS AT JERUSALEM AND ATHENS

Inasmuch as Princeton Theological Seminary makes an annual contribution to the American School of Oriental Studies at Jerusalem, and to the American School of Classical Studies at Athens, qualified students can sometimes be recommended in competition for annual fellowships at each of these schools. For further details, students who are interested should consult with Mr. Meyer regarding studies at Athens or with Mr. Roberts regarding studies at Jerusalem. By virtue of an association with the Hebrew Union College Biblical and Archaeological School in Jerusalem, it also is possible for qualified students to be recommended for research fellowships in Israel.

THE TÜBINGEN EXCHANGE FELLOWSHIP

Through an arrangement with the University of Tübingen, a fellowship has been established through which a year of study at that institution is provided following completion of the Master of Divinity program. Senior M.Div. candidates are eligible to apply for this fellowship by writing to the Academic Dean by March 1. Academic excellence and proficiency in German are the two primary qualifications for the award.

PRIZES AND SPECIAL AWARDS

Year by year a considerable number of prizes are offered for special work or attainments. The recipients of such prizes must have completed creditably all the studies of the year.

Except where an essay is required, the inclusion of a prize in the descriptive paragraphs below does not constitute an assurance of its availability during the year 1986-1987. Essays submitted for prizes must be signed with an assumed name, accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the name of the author, and presented at the Office of Professional Studies on or before May 1.

GRADUATE STUDENTS, SENIORS, MIDDLEMANS, JUNIORS

The Samuel Robinson Foundation Prizes

By the generosity and vision of a Presbyterian layman, Mr. Samuel Robinson, a considerable sum of money has been donated to Princeton Seminary to stimulate interest in the Westminster Shorter Catechism. Believing, upon the ground of his personal experience, that there is no single statement of Christian doctrine more admirably suited than the Westminster Shorter Catechism to challenge the thought of young people upon the basic truths of the Christian religion, the donor has founded a number of prizes and a fellowship.

For the year 1986-1987 up to thirty-three prizes of $150.00 each will be awarded, for which juniors, middlers, seniors, and graduate students may try, provided they have not previously received a Samuel Robinson Prize.

The basis of awarding of prizes shall be both an oral examination on the text and a written examination on the text and its interpretation.

A student may receive a prize on the Robinson Foundation only once during his or her period of study at the Seminary.

The David Hugh Jones Prize

Through the generosity of former members of the Princeton Seminary Choir, this prize is offered periodically to that student who, in the judgment of the faculty, has contributed most to the musical life of the Seminary campus.

The Robert Goodlin Prize

Through the generosity of family and friends, this prize has been established in memory of Robert Paul Goodlin, a member of the senior class of 1961. The award will be made to a worthy student who has displayed a particular interest in clinical training.

The Warwick Foundation Scholarship Grant

This award is given through the Warwick Foundation by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Gemmill in honor of Mr. Gemmill's father, Benjamin McKee Gemmill, D.D., a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary in 1892. The sum of $3,000 is made available to assist a student who requires financial aid.

The Frederick Neumann Prize for Excellence in Greek and Hebrew

Through the generosity of Dr. Edith Neumann, this prize has been established in memory of her husband, Dr. Frederick Neumann (1899-1967), and is awarded annually, upon recommendation of the Department of Biblical Studies, to that upcoming middler or senior student who has demonstrated the greatest excellence and the most promise in the basic courses in Hebrew and Greek.

SENIOR PRIZES

The Jagow Prizes in Homiletics and Speech

Through the generosity of Mr. Charles H. Jagow there was established in 1977 the Jagow Family Fund. A portion of the income from this endowment provides annually two prizes of $250 each, to be awarded to those students who during the year have made the greatest progress or displayed outstanding achievement in homiletics or speech.

The Mary Long Greir-Hugh Davies Prize in Preaching

In 1923 the Synod of Pennsylvania (Welsh), by a gift to the Trustees of the Seminary, established the Hugh Davies Fund in memory of the Reverend Hugh Davies (1831-1910), an honored minister and historian of the Calvinistic-Methodist Church in Pennsylvania. In 1944 Elizabeth J. Greir left funds to establish one or more prizes in connection with the work of students "for excellence in oratory, in delivery of sermons, addresses, or declamations." The interest derived from these two funds provides annually a prize of $350, to be awarded to that member of the senior class whose preaching and other forms of oral communication shall be accounted the best in thought, composition, and delivery.

The John Alan Swink Prize in Preaching

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan S. Swink began this prize in memory of their son, John Alan Swink, a member of the Senior class of 1952. The prize was subsequently endowed by John's sister, Mrs. William Sieber, of Wayne, Pennsylvania, and by her husband. One hundred dollars may be given to a member of the senior class who has shown most improvement in preaching during his or her Seminary course.

The Charles J. Reller Abiding Memorial Fund Award

The Neshaminy-Warwick Presbyterian Church of Hartsville, Pennsylvania, has established this award in memory of Charles J. Reller, a devoted member of that congregation. The award will be made to the student who, during the final year of study on any Seminary program, is judged to have shown during that year "the greatest active Christian concern for his fellow man."

The John T. Galloway Prize in Expository Preaching

The John T. Galloway prize is awarded, upon recommendation of the professors of homiletics, to a member of the senior class who throughout his or her years as a Master of Divinity candidate has indicated a special interest and a competence in courses in expository preaching, and who in the preaching class has delivered an unusually good expository sermon.

The Samuel Wilson Blizzard Memorial Award

Through the generosity of former students, colleagues, and friends, there was established in 1976 an award in memory of the Rev. Samuel Wilson Blizzard, Jr., an influential sociologist and alumnus in the class of 1939, who at the time of his death was Maxwell M. Upson Professor of Christianity and Society, Emeritus, in the Seminary. Annually, a prize of $25 is awarded to a member of the graduating class who in the judgment of the faculty has displayed particular concern and aptitude for the social ministry of the church.

The Friar Club Alumni Award

Through the generosity of the Friar Club alumni, there was established in 1977 the Friar Club Alumni Award, to be given to a member of the senior class who has contributed significantly to the life of the Seminary community.

The Edler Garnet Hawkins Memorial Award for Scholastic Excellence

Through the generosity of friends and former parishioners, an award has been established in memory of the Reverend Dr. Edler G. Hawkins, Moderator of the One Hundred and Seventy-Sixth General Assembly, who at the time of his death was Professor of Practical Theology and Coordinator of Black Studies in the Seminary. The recipient of this award shall be that Afro-American member of the senior class who has achieved the highest cumulative grade point average within the first fifth of the previous year's graduating class. The grant, in an amount of at least $500, shall take the form of a credit at the Theological Book Agency.

The Kenyon J. Wildrick Award

The Benevolence Committee of the Community Congregational Church of Short Hills, New Jersey, established this award in 1985 in honor of their pastor the Reverend Kenyon J. Wildrick. Annually, an award of one hundred dollars for excellence in homiletics is presented to a student in the graduating class.

The John Havran Prize in Christian Education

Through the generosity of Doris Havran, there was established in 1985 the John Havran Prize in Christian Education. This award is made annually, upon nomination by the faculty in Christian education, to a graduating M.A. student who shows creativity and promise of excellence for the practice of educational ministry.

The George L. Rentschler Prize in Speech and Communication

Through the generosity of the Reverend George L. Rentschler, an alumnus in the class of 1945, there has been established a prize in the area of speech and communication. Annually, upon nomination by the Egner Professor of Speech, an award of $500 is given to that person in the graduating year who has shown excellence in speech.

The Robert Boyd Munger Prize in Youth Ministry

Through the generosity of friends, there was established in 1986 a prize to honor the Reverend Dr. Robert Boyd Munger, a distinguished alumnus in the class of 1936 and an alumni/ae trustee of the Seminary from 1967 to 1970. This prize honors one who helped organize some of the first deputation teams to young people while he was a student at the Seminary, and who was an effective communicator of the gospel to young people throughout his ministry. The award is made annually to a graduating student in either the Master of Divinity or the Master of Arts in Christian education program who has demonstrated academic achievement and has taken part in a significant ministry to teenage or college age young people after beginning his or her seminary studies.

SENIOR AND MIDDLE PRIZES

The Robert L. Maitland Prizes in New Testament Exegesis and English Bible

In 1890 Mr. Alexander Maitland, of New York, founded the Robert L. Maitland prizes in memory of his father. Three hundred dollars will be given for the best exegesis of a passage of the New Testament. The passage for 1986-1987 is: Romans 5:12-21; Adam and Christ.

Three hundred dollars will be given for the best essay on an assigned subject in English Bible. The topic for 1986-87 is: Numbers 12; Miriam and Aaron Challenge Moses.

The John Finley McLaren Prize in Biblical Theology

By a gift of Mrs. Archibald Alexander Hodge a prize in Biblical Theology has been established in memory of her father, Dr. John Finley McLaren. The sum of one hundred dollars will be awarded for the best essay on the assigned subject in biblical theology.

The subject for 1986-87 is: Does God Deceive? Exegetical and Theological Reflections on Ezekiel 14:1-11, Second Thessalonians 2:5-12, and Related Passages.

MIDDLE PRIZES

The Benjamin Stanton Prize in Old Testament

In 1890 the Rev. Horace C. Stanton, D.D., an alumnus of the Seminary, founded the Benjamin Stanton prize in memory of his father. One hundred dollars may be awarded to a member of the middle class on the basis of excellence in the field of Old Testament without submitting a thesis.

The E. L. Wailes Memorial Prize in New Testament

By a gift from the estate of the Rev. George Handy Wailes, D.D., an alumnus of the Seminary in the class of 1897 and a visiting professor in the institution for several years, there was established in 1968 the E. L. Wailes Memorial Prize. Fifty dollars may be awarded to a member of the middle class on the basis of excellence in the field of New Testament without submitting a thesis.

The Henry Snyder Gehman Award in Old Testament

Through the generosity of the Rev. Dr. Robert E. Hansen, an alumnus of the Seminary in the class of 1943, there has been established the Henry Snyder Gehman Award in Old Testament, honoring a distinguished biblical scholar and member of this faculty who began service in the Seminary in 1930 and who in 1958 retired as the William Henry Green Professor of Old Testament Literature. Annually a prize of $750 is awarded to a member of the middle class for excellence in the field of Old Testament without submitting a thesis.

The Archibald Alexander Hodge Prize in Systematic Theology

By a gift of Mrs. A. A. Hodge there was established in 1907 a prize in Systematic Theology in memory of her husband, the Rev. Archibald Alexander Hodge, D.D., LL.D. Seventy-five dollars is awarded periodically to a member of the middle class on the basis of excellence in the field of systematic theology without submitting a thesis.

The William Tennent Scholarship

The Neshaminy-Warwick Church of Hartsville, Pennsylvania, has established a scholarship of $1,000 to be awarded to a member of the coming senior class who has shown special interest and ability in the teaching aspects of the work of the church.

The Edward Howell Roberts Scholarship in Preaching

Through the generosity of Mr. George M. Dunlap, Jr., the Marple Presbyterian Church of Broomall, Pennsylvania, has established an annual scholarship in memory of Edward Howell Roberts who at the time of his death in 1954 was Dean of Princeton Seminary. An award of $1,000 will be made by the faculty to a member of the middle class who shows promise in the field of preaching and who needs financial aid in order to continue study in this area.

The Raymond Irving Lindquist Fellowship in the Parish Ministry

This fellowship, established in honor of the Reverend Dr. Raymond Irving Lindquist, an alumnus of Princeton Theological Seminary in the class of 1933, a trustee of the Seminary, and minister emeritus of the Hollywood First Presbyterian Church, will be given to a rising senior each year who has been judged outstanding in his or her gifts and preparation for the parish ministry and is planning a career as a pastor. The fellowship will be awarded by the faculty on the recommendation of the Director of Field Education.

HOUSING FACILITIES

Single Students

Rooms in the Seminary dormitories are furnished with bedstead, mattress, pillow, bureau, chairs, desk, mirror, and bookcase. Bed linen and blankets for a single bed, and towels, must be provided by the student.

A single student on a regular program is expected to room in one of the Seminary dormitories. Students who occupy Seminary accommodations are required to be enrolled for a full-time program throughout the period of residence and to take their meals in the Campus Center.

A drawing for choice of rooms in the dormitories is held in April, and rooms are assigned to new students upon arrival. A limited number of single rooms ordinarily are available for incoming students with special needs.

Although dormitory accommodations are intended primarily for students enrolled for full academic loads, provision occasionally may be made on an available space basis for persons registered for part-time studies.

Candidates for the Ph.D. degree may occupy Seminary accommodations for a four-year period only. Candidates for the Th.M. degree ordinarily may occupy Seminary facilities for one year only, during which time they are expected to pursue a full-time program.

Married Students

A large number of unfurnished apartments for married students with or without children is available in the Charlotte Rachel Wilson complex. Each unit contains a living room, dining area, kitchen, bath, and either one or two bedrooms. This group of apartments is located approximately four miles from the Seminary. A smaller number of unfurnished apartments of varying sizes, some with provision for couples with children, is available on the Tennent campus. Seminary apartments are rented to students under a lease arrangement. The period of the lease is from July 1 to June 30, except for the first year when the lease begins on September 1.

Although an increasing number of married students will occupy Seminary apartments, some families will find it desirable or necessary to secure accommodations in Princeton or the surrounding area. The Seminary maintains an Office of Housing to assist couples in finding adequate accommodations, although final responsibility for obtaining such accommodations rests with the student. More complete information on lease terms is contained in the Handbook of the Princeton Theological Seminary. All inquiries concerning married student housing, whether Seminary or off-campus, should be addressed to:

Director of Housing
Princeton Theological Seminary

Princeton, New Jersey 08542

CARE OF HEALTH

Students of the Seminary who require medical attention are cared for at the Princeton University Infirmary, which is used jointly with University students on the following terms:

1. Every student who becomes ill or suffers an accident should report at once to the infirmary for examination by a staff physician. If the student is taken ill in his or her room and is unable to go to the infirmary, a physician at the infirmary should be notified immediately. The infirmary telephone (452-3139) is covered 24 hours a day, except during the Christmas and summer holidays.
2. If a student is confined to the infirmary less than one week, no charge is made for board. If confinement is for one week or more, charges will be assessed at current University rates from the time of admission to the infirmary. In the latter case, an adjustment will be made on the Seminary board bill if he or she holds a board and room contract with the Seminary.
3. During the summer before registration, an entering student must submit a health and immunization history and a record of medical examination completed by his or her family or school physician. A standard report form for this purpose is made available by the infirmary through the Office of Admissions of the Seminary.

The infirmary staff includes two psychiatrists and a clinical psychologist who may be consulted by students desiring their assistance.

Participation in the health program of the University infirmary is made possible by an 1893 gift of $3,750, by the Reverend William Lewis Moore of New York City and Mrs. Matthew Baird of Philadelphia, which established an endowment in the infirmary for the benefit of the Seminary in memory of William Lewis Moore, Jr. In 1923 Mr. E. Francis Hyde of New York City contributed $25,000 on behalf of the Seminary toward the construction of a new building. The Seminary, by an annual contribution toward the maintenance of the infirmary, assumes its share of the cost of operation.

To supplement the excellent facilities and program of the McCosh Infirmary, Princeton Seminary has initiated a Medical Benefits Plan, designed to the Seminary's own specifications and needs. This plan has two aims: first, to cover most or all of the usual cost of hospitalization; and second, to provide financial assistance in those cases where other medical expenses rise above the "deductible" out-of-pocket sum of $50.00. Participation in the Plan is mandatory for all full-time students of the Seminary (see the definition in the note at the foot of page 132), and available for dependents of such students. The comprehensive fee coverage includes services of McCosh Infirmary and the Medical Benefits Plan for the student. For an additional charge, coverage of the Plan is extended to dependents, according to a table of rates available from the Business Office upon request.

EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

ALL REGULARLY admitted students with the exception of doctoral candidates are considered members of the student body of Princeton Theological Seminary for the purpose of conducting the affairs of student government. An elected Student Government, and a Planning Board with membership drawn from each of the student organizations, establish the budget and direct the programs of student organizations.

The primary purposes of the Student Government, as set forth in its constitution, are: (1) to coordinate student activities and concerns, (2) to represent the students in contacts with the Faculty and administration of the Seminary, and (3) to facilitate student involvement in non-Seminary organizations and interests.

KOINONIA

Koinonia is a society composed of students who are working toward the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. Meetings are held from time to time during the academic year, at which diverse themes of theological interest are discussed.

SPECIAL LECTURESHIPS

Five lectureships have been endowed which, through the publication of the lectures as delivered or in expanded form, have been productive of a considerable body of theological and missionary literature.

The Stone Lectureship

In 1871, Levi P. Stone, Esq., of Orange, N.J., a director and also a trustee of the Seminary, created the foundation for a lectureship which, in accordance with his direction, has been applied annually since 1883 to the payment of a lecturer, chosen by the faculty of the Seminary, who delivers a course of lectures upon some topic kindred to theological studies. In the years 1903 and 1906 the endowment was increased through the generosity of Mr. Stone's sisters. Dr. Albert J. Raboteau, professor of religion at Princeton University, delivered the Stone Lectures for 1985-1986 on the topic, "Recovering a Tradition: The Religious History of Black Americans." The five lectures were entitled "African Diaspora," "Invisible Institution," "Black Religious Protest," "Religion and Race," and "Lessons from the Past." A specialist in the history of religion in America, with particular emphasis on American Catholicism and Afro-American history and religion, Dr. Raboteau has been on the faculty of Princeton University since 1983.

The Students' Lectureship on Missions

The Students' Course of Lectures on Foreign Missions had its inception in the minds of the undergraduates of the Seminary, and its endowment was secured largely by their efforts, liberally supported by the Reverend James S. Dennis, D.D. The lectureship was established in 1893. It is designed to provide for an annual course of lectures on some topic connected with Christian missions which shall be of practical importance for those looking forward to missionary service abroad, and at the same time introduce the whole Seminary community to the world mission of the church. Dr. Geoffrey Wainwright, professor of systematic theology at Duke Divinity School and in the graduate program in religion of Duke University since 1983, delivered the Students' Lectureship on Missions for 1985-1986 on the topic, "Till Every Tongue Confess: The Worship, Mission, and Unity of God's Church." The three lectures in the series were "Baptism, Eucharist, and Ministry," "The Apostolic Faith Today," and "Church Unity and Human Renewal." Dr. Wainwright's particular interests include Christian liturgics and spirituality.

The Warfield Lectureship

In the will of Dr. Benjamin B. Warfield, former professor of systematic theology in the Seminary, a fund was created to establish a lectureship in memory of Mrs. Warfield, to be called the Annie Kinkead Warfield Lectureship. In accordance with the terms of the trust, the lecturer on this foundation shall be approved by the faculty of the Seminary, upon the nomination of the Charles Hodge Professor of Systematic Theology. Each lecturer shall belong to the Reformed tradition in theology, and "the subject of the lectures shall in all cases be some doctrine or doctrines of the Reformed system of doctrine." Dr. Letty M. Russell, professor of practical theology at Yale University Divinity School and a leading feminist theologian in the United States, delivered the Warfield Lectureship in 1985-1986 on the topic, "Authority in the Future of Feminist Theology." The six lectures in the series were "Mending Creation," "Shifting Paradigms," "Interpreting Scripture and Tradition," "Talking About God," "Interpreting Power and Service," and "Good Housekeeping."

The Reverend Alexander Thompson Memorial Lecture

In honor of the Reverend Alexander Thompson of the class of 1909 there was established a lectureship dealing broadly with "some aspect of the Bible.” The lecturer, selected by the faculty of the Seminary, presents a single address during the month of March. Dr. Hans Frei, a scholar in modern western religious thought, gave the Thompson Lecture for 1985-1986 on the topic, “Conflicts in Interpretation: Resolution, Armistice, or Co-existence?” Dr. Frei is professor of religious studies at Yale University, where he has been on the faculty since 1957.

The Frederick Neumann Memorial Lecture

Established in 1983 by Dr. Edith Neumann in memory of her husband, this annual lecture is on a theme appropriate to the broad theological interests of Dr. Frederick Neumann (1899-1967)—philosopher, biblical scholar, missionary, and pastor. The lecturer, selected by the faculty of the Seminary, delivers a single address during one of the academic terms. Dr. Peter Brown, visiting professor of history at Princeton University, gave the Neumann Lecture for 1985-1986 on the topic, “Society and the Body: The Social Meaning of Asceticism in Late Antiquity.” Primarily a scholar of medieval history, Dr. Brown is professor of history at the University of California at Berkeley, where he has been on the faculty since 1977.

PUBLICATIONS

THE PRINCETON SEMINARY BULLETIN

THIS PUBLICATION, issued three times a year, contains the copy of addresses delivered to the Seminary community by visiting lecturers, papers of a specialized or scholarly nature by members of the faculty, sermons, book reviews, and special program notices. THE BULLETIN is distributed free of charge among all former students and is sent to seminary libraries, church-related colleges, and on an exchange basis with many similar quarterlies. All inquiries should be addressed to the Editor, Princeton Seminary Bulletin, CN821, Princeton, N.J. 08542.

ALUMNI/AE NEWS

Issued four times a year by the Publications Office in cooperation with the Office of Public Information, Alumni/ae News is distributed without charge to all former students of Princeton Seminary. The magazine features articles on campus events, the developing program of the Seminary, and the activities of graduates and members of the current Seminary community.

THEOLOGY TODAY

Published continuously since 1944, THEOLOGY TODAY has become one of the most widely circulated and influential religious quarterlies in the United States. Although it is not an official organ of Princeton Theological Seminary, THEOLOGY TODAY continues the distinguished tradition of the older Princeton Review. It attempts to provide wide-ranging, reflective articles on contemporary trends in theology, church, and society. The Editorial Council includes men and women of scholarly distinction. For information regarding the journal and subscriptions write THEOLOGY TODAY, Box 29, Princeton, N.J. 08542.

OPPORTUNITIES TO SHARE

A Life Income Gift

Princeton Seminary offers several types of gift plans which provide income for life to the donor, along with certain tax benefits, and also further the support of the Seminary. These plans are:

- A Gift Annuity or the Deferred Gift Annuity
- The Princeton Seminary Fund (a pooled income fund)
- The Charitable Remainder Annuity Trust
- The Charitable Remainder Unitrust

A Scholarship

Gifts to the current scholarship fund up to $3,000 will provide partial to full scholarship aid for one year. A gift of $2,500 or more initiates a named endowment fund providing income for a partial scholarship. A $50,000 gift creates a fully endowed scholarship fund, the income of which sustains an annual full scholarship.

A Bequest

An outright bequest may be made to the Seminary, or the residuary interest assigned, or the Seminary may be designated a contingent beneficiary.

A form of bequest is: I bequeath to Princeton Theological Seminary, located at Princeton, New Jersey, the sum of $_____ to be used for the general purposes of the Seminary (or as designated by the testator):

The corporate name of the Seminary is

“Princeton Theological Seminary”
at Princeton, New Jersey

For Further Information

Full information about any of these opportunities will be provided on request. Please write or call The Vice-President for Seminary Relations, Princeton Theological Seminary, CN821, Princeton, New Jersey 08542. The telephone number is (609) 921-8306.
